NO LONGER HELPLESS INFANT B.C. FOLLOWS MARITIMES IN EQUITY DEMAND, MANSON SAYS

Royal Commission on Claims to Railway Lands Opens Here; Twigg Tries to Break in "To Represent Dr. Tolmie," But Presiding Justice Rules "No Politics"

The opening session at the Parliament Buildings to-day of the Royal Commission of Mr. Justice W. M. Martin of Saskatchewan to investigate British Columbia's claims for the return to the Province of Dominion railway lands, was featured by the attempt of H. Despard Twigg to break into the array of Dominion and Provincial counsel, explaining taht he had come "to represent Dr. Tolmie," who was with him in the room.

Mr. Justice Martin at once refused to hear Mr. Twigg, explaining that he would recognize no political parties in the inquiry.

Hon. A. M. Manson, Attorney-General of British Columbia, said that C. W. Craig and other British Columbia counsel were ready to receive and put before the commission any suggestions that Mr. Twigg or anyone else might want to make on behalf of Dr. Tolmie or anyone else.

MARITIMES REPORT AS PRECEDENT

The Attorney-General gave the opening address for British Columbia this morning and urged that the commission should take a broad view of its duties here, and quoted the attitude of the Duncan Commission in the case of the Maritimes grievance as precedent for making a similar big, broad report on the British Columbia case.

Mr. Manson urged that British Columbia was well justified in asking revision of the terms agreed upon at the time of union between the Province and the Dominion, because British Columbia then, helpless as an infant at its parent's knee, was at the mercy of the Dominion, which drove an exacting bargain, which found its consummation in 1884.

B.C. HELPLESS IN BARGAINING

"B.C. made a bargain with the Dominion at a time when we were in no position to bargain," Mr. Manson went on. "They drove a bargain with us that was inequitable and unjust.

"B.C. was not competent at that time to enter into a bargain. B.C. in 1883-84 was largely Vancouver Island and its mind was nearly all absorbed on the construction of a line of railway from one end of Vancouver Island to the other, with the result that the Province as a whole paid a penalty.

"The dominant thing after all is Confederation and the spirit of Confederation is the success of the whole. There must be justice to all parts. If there has been iniquity done, if too hard a bargain has been driven and something taken from one part of the Dominion that places it at a disadvantage, then that situation must be rectified.

"We know beyond all question now that those who were concerned in the bargains of 1871 and subsequently were mistaken in their estimates of the facts and that they proceeded upon wrong premises."

BASED ON MISCONCEPTION OF WEST

Some of these "wrong premises," Mr. Manson elaborated on referring to the debates in the House of Commons, where B.C. was described as a barren waste of no economic value.

He also quoted Eastern predictions of these days as to failure to which the C.P.R. was doomed. Even the prairies were held to be useless stretches of frozen waste.

EXPERTS ARE TO OUTLINE PLANS FOR NAVY CUTS

Proposals Before Geneva Conference Given to Officers For Study

Geneva, June 21.—The executive committee of the Three-Power Naval Conference under the presidency of Hugh S. Gibson of the United States, decided to-day to convoke a meeting of the technical exerts of Great Britain, the United States and Japan. The experts were instructed first to exchange views and reach an agreement on the existing status of the three navies, including building programmes, and, second, to begin a study of the three sets of proposals placed before the conference yesterday with a view to clarifying their legal import.

An official communique was issued saying the executive committee had adopted a resolution in which it suggested that a technical committee be formed to "exchange agreed statistics of the present cruiser, destroyer and submarine tonnage" of each of the three powers and of the designed tonnage of ships of those classes comprised in the naval programmes now authorized and for which money has been appropriated, and "any other information tending to clarify the proposals."

The resolution concluded with th hope that in this matter the conference would be in a position to start its deliberations on "an agreed basis of fact."

JAPAN'S ATTITUDE

Geneva, June 21.—Japan considers the present three-power Naval conference here an entirely new assembly and not a mere continuation of the Washington conference, the naval experts of her delegation made clear to-day after a preliminary study of the British and United States proposals.

They intimated they would insist upon a detailed examination "of what they required in auxiliary craft," without the more or less rigid extension of the 5-5-3 ratio to auxiliaries, which they construe, the United States plan to mean.

REVISION IN 1931

They dismiss the British proposals for limitation of the size of capital ships as out of the question for settlement at the present conference, remarking that the Washington signatories are due to revise their conclusions in this respect in 1931. They agree, however, that much useful discussion of limitation in size may be held here without the adoption of hard and fast decisions.

FREE HAND

Admiral Viscount Saito, head of the delegation, has a free hand to negotiate, the experts made it known, and is not bound to refer to Tokio continually for fresh instructions.

They believe the study of the British and United States proposals will take considerable time, as many points are not exactly clear to them. They profess not to have been surprised by the British proposals, but thought the United States plan would stick even more closely to the principles adopted in 1922 at Washington.

POPULATION OF CALGARY 81,880

Calgary, June 21.—Calgary's population is estimated at 81,880 in the 1927 Henderson's city directory. The directory's census shows an increase of 3,900 over 1926. The Federal census of 1926 gave the population of Calgary as 65,513.

PRINCETON GIVES MASSEY A DEGREE

U.S. University Honors Canadian Minister at Washington in Jubilee Year

Princeton, N.J., June 21 (Canadian Press).—Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian Minister to the United States, today received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from Princeton University.

"He represents the peace which has for more than a century prevailed along our unprotected border and the goodwill which was never more pronounced than now," said Professor Magee, Professor Physics at Princton, in awarding the degree at the annual commencement exercises of the university.

JUBILEE SPIRIT

"In a few days the blaze of 10,000 bonfires will link the long miles from Cape Breton to Vancouver Island to celebrate the sixtieth year of the Dominion's life.

"In this auspicious year and in the light of the joy and pride in achievement which these fires will symbolize, we welcome the worthy representative of a great and independent power."

Professor Magee referred to Mr. Massey as "an active political worker and a sound adviser on national affairs."

Washington Bakers Meet in Vancouver

Vancouver, June 21—The annual convention of the Washington State Bakers' Association was opened here to-day at noon when Mayor L. D. Taylor welcomed the visitors to the city. Addresses were delivered by Henry Stude of Houston, Texas, president of the American Bakers' Association; W. A. MacPherson, Tacoma, president of the Washington Bakers' Association, E. Franz, president of the Oregon Master Bakers' Association; E. I. Bradley, president of the Inland Empire Bakers' Association, and T. C. Polson, president of the Vancouver Bakers' Association.

This afternoon is being devoted to sightseeing. Business sessions will commence to-morrow morning.

FOREST FIRE IN NORTH WASHINGTON

Bellingham, Wash., June 21.—The first forest fire of the season in Northwest Washington has been reported in the holdings of the Lyman Timber Company near Hamilton. The blaze is understood to be under control. It is outside the limits of Mount Baker National Forest.

LIES ILL IN MADRID; PRINCE OF ASTURIAS

Biarritz, France, June 21.—The health of the Prince of Asturias, heir to the Spanish throne, has taken a turn for the worse during the last few days, say reports from Spain. His condition is now such that he is obliged to remain in bed.

VICTORIA BOY WINS PH.D. AT PRINCETON

Reginald H. Pegrum Received Early Education Locally

Princeton, N.J., June 21.—Included among the 449 students who graduated from Princeton University at commencement exercises were five Canadians who received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Two from Western Canada were: Reginald H. Pegrum, Victoria, B.C., University of Alberta, 1923, geology; Charles S. Evans, Vancouver, University of British Columbia, 1924, geology.

Reginald H. Pegrum is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pegrum of 1821 First Street, who have been residents of Victoria since 1913. Their eldest son, Dudley Frank Pegrum, will graduate this Summer with his Ph.D. in economics from the University of California, at Berkeley. Both boys received their education in the local public schools, the elder boy winning the Duke of Connaught's medal for being the highest in grade 8 in his year.

SEARCH FOR MISSING MOUNTAIN CLIMBER

North Vancouver, June 21.—A party of mountaineers was organized this morning to search the rugged slopes of Goat Mountain, near here, for Ben Weinborn, twenty-one, missing for three days, and who may be lying helpless near the summit of the mountain. It is feared the youth met misfortune near the slope where A. E. A. Augur perished February 19 in a snowslide. Weinborn left home early Sunday morning.

CADET WON PRIZES

Kingston, Ont., June 21—Cadet B. M. Archibald of Toronto was awarded the Sword of Honor for conduct and discipline and also the gold medal for the highest aggregate of marks during the entire course at the Royal Military College here, the graduating exercises of which were held yesterday.

DAVE BLACK LEADS FOR RYDER TROPHY

Vancouver "Pro" Eliminates Jimmy Rimmer, Jasper

Montreal, June 21.—Dave Black, stocky little pro of the Shaughnessy Heights Golf Club, Vancouver, displaced Jimmy Rimmer, Jasper, as the leader at the end of fifty-four holes in the match between the British Ryder Cup golfers and a team of Canadian pros over the Montreal Royal Course here to-day.

Two strokes behind Rimmer this morning, Black shot a 73, making the turn in 40 and coming home in 33, three under par, to take the lead with a score of 220 for fifty-four holes of the seventy-two-hole match. Rimmer, paired with Havers, to-day met disaster at the eighth, going out, when he carried over the green. He took a 39 going out and finished with 76 for a total of 221. Andrew Kay, Laurbton, Toronto, tied Ted Ray, British captain, for the best eighteen holes this morning, turning in 71. Kay missed being two under par when he took three putts on the home green. However, the Toronto pro drew into third place, tied with Arthur Havers, Great Britain, with 224, four behind the leader. Havers is the only Ryder Cup player with a chance to finish in front on the final eighteen this afternoon. Ray's 71 came too late as he is still six strokes behind the leader with 226 and practically out of first money for the seventy-two holes.

Rimmer had had luck and lost his lead when a cinder got into his eye at the thirteenth. It was so painful that a doctor in the large gallery following the Jasper Park pro was forced to

TERMINAL WAREHOUSE BY-LAW UP

Prominent Montreal Backing Behind Syndicate Negotiating Cold Storage Project

Motion Picture Possibilities to Be Debated by Council at Wednesday Session

Leave to introduce the "Terminal Warehouse Agreement" by-law for preliminary council consideration is asked in a notice of motion posted at the City Hall to-day. The by-law, comprising the text of a proposed agreement with H. G. Brown and Montreal associates in which the city would consent to guarantee a bond issue in connection with the erection and operation at Ogden Point of full terminal storage facilities, will be introduced and discussed at the special council session called for 8.30 p.m. Wednesday.

Both parties to the suggested agreement were awaiting word to-day from the firm of Hanson Bros., eastern bankers, who have agreed to underwrite the venture if negotiations here are brought to a satisfactory head. Proposed changes in the terms of a guarantee in the draft of the tentative agreement require ratification from Montreal, and a reply is expected today in this connection.

The cold storage scheme is regarded as the most important issue to be laid before the council this year by the industrial committee, and follows extensive reports on the subject by Roger D. Pinneo, former industrial adviser to the corporation. The summary terms of the agreement, which have been published in The Times previously indicate an extensive programme which would depend for its success on the upbuilding of rural farming and other communities adjacent to Victoria, as well as supplying export outlets for Vancouver Island produce from land and sea.

Also before the council to-morrow will be "Flemming-Sherritt Motion Picture Agreement" by-law, a tentative measure which has yet to receive council consideration. Leave to introduce the by-law was asked to-day in a notice posted at the City Hall. Under this measure, if ratified, the city would be required to guarantee bonds issued by a motion picture production unit catering to Empire distributors in films that would be produced in Victoria.

Discussion on the choice of a successor to Roger D. Pinneo will not come before the Wednesday session of the council, it is anticipated, as applications for the post will be received up to Thursday of this week. Three applicants have submitted written statements in their behalf.

INQUIRY INTO TWO DEATHS IN WINNIPEG

Man Accused as "Strangler" Displays Little Interest During Inquest

Winnipeg, June 21.—A coroner's jury's verdict expressing the opinion that he had "murdered both" is to-day part of the records in the case of Earle Nelson, alias Virgil Wilson, alleged "Strangler" murderer, held on charges of having murdered by strangulation Mrs. Emily Patterson, twenty-seven, and fourteen-year-old Lola Cowan, in Winnipeg. He is also believed to have been responsible for a score of murders in the United States from the Pacific coast to Detroit.

Twenty-six witnesses testified last night at the inquest on the two deaths.

During his two hours in court Nelson appeared preoccupied and disinterested. He showed no curiosity over bundles of clothing that were stacked up as exhibits, yawned several times and seemed bored.

CLOSE MATCHES IN P.N.W. GOLF

Rudy Wilhelm Turns in Best Score of 71 to Lead Gene Hatton by 13 Holes

Jack Fraser 1 up on Defending Champion; Dick Moore Has Bad Day

Close matches were played this morning in the opening round of match play in the P.N.G.A. amateur championship being played at Colwood.

The first eighteen holes were completed by all the players at noon when the ladies began to come in with their qualifying scores.

Out of the sixteen matches played this morning no less than eight of these finished all square or one up, giving promise of some close finishes this afternoon.

Rudy Wilhelm turned in the best performance, shooting a 71 to lead Gene Hatton by 13 holes. Jack Fraser was one up on Forest Watson, the defending champion, who encountered plenty of trouble. The titleholder was four down at the sixteenth, but won the three home holes to reduce his opponent's lead.

The medalist, F. Dolp, encountered plenty of competition from young Goldwyn Terry, who was only three down at lunch time, due to some fine work on the greens.

Dick Moore was far from his best, and had a seven-hole lead to wrest from Fred Wood of Vancouver.

Bon Stein had a great battle with another Vancouver player, C. J. Perkins, who hung up 77, but was three down to Bon.

The scores were as follows:

Jack Fraser 1 up on Forest Watson.
Rudy Wilhelm 13 up on Gene Hatton.
R. Whaley 2 up on C. Havens.
Bon Stein 3 up on C. J. Perkins.
Russ Smith all square with V. Dolp.
Jimmy Wall 1 up on Dr. S. Slocum.
B. Winter 3 up on F. Thomas.
Don Moe 1 up on H. Haakons.
Roy Moe 4 up on J. Matson.
H. Lineham all square with G. Shaw.
B. Davidson all square with Thornton Fell.
F. Wood 7 up on Dick Moore.
Dr. Willing 1 up on Lee Steil.
F. F. Jackson 2 up on F. E Williams.
G. Standifer 1 up on Dr. J. Johnston.
F. Dolp 3 up on G. M. Terry.

Requests For Higher Pay Are Refused

Vancouver, June 21.—The recommendation of the conciliation board for increases in pay for civic employees of Vancouver was turned down for the second time this year by a majority of the City Council yesterday.

The request was for an increase of $7.50 a month for firemen, $11 for fire captains, $7.50 for the city hall staff, $5 for police and 25 cents daily for outside city staff and construction foremen.

POLICEMEN BARRED FROM UNION RANKS

Montreal, June 21.—The decision of the city council of Montreal to prevent policemen belonging to the Police Union has been upheld by the Supreme Court of Canada, according to advices received here from Ottawa. Further, the contention that the decision constituted a lock-out is not upheld, as no ditmissals had been made.

Confederation Jubilee Issue Of Times Tells How Fathers of Country Built Canada of Today

Next Saturday to mark Canada's diamond jubilee, The Victoria Daily Times will publish a confederation jubilee number which will tell in a graphic manner the story of Confederation and how the fathers of our country built the Dominion of to-day.

The Confederation supplement in four sections, containing forty-eight pages, is crowded with articles and illustrations telling the story of Canada's rise to a power in the world. It tells how the Dominion has stepped ahead since the provinces of Canada became a united whole, but deals more particularly with British Columbia's entry into Confederation.

Featuring British Columbia as a land of opportunity, splendid illustrations are used in connection with comprehensive articles on the industries and resources of the Province. Its great timber areas, its minerals, fertile valleys, great ports, prolific fisheries, water-powers, scenery, and hunting, are the subject of articles. The public administration of British Columbia is also dealt with in detail.

Twenty-five tons of paper will be used to print this memorable issue which will provide an interesting historical record apart from its value as a trade and commerce reference.

ARE TO ATTEMPT ATLANTIC FLIGHT

Commander Richard E. Byrd (left) and Bert Acosta have their monoplane, the America, tuned up for the flight they hope to make to Paris. Byrd is pilot and Acosta relief pilot. The plane is to carry two men in addition to them.

Hon Lucien Cannon To Speak Friday at Public Luncheon

Hon. Lucien Cannon, Solicitor-General of Canada and Acting Minister of Justice, first cabinet minister from Ottawa to visit Victoria this season, will deliver an address here on Canadian affairs at a public luncheon to be held at the Empress Hotel on Friday under the auspices of the Laurier Club of Victoria.

Saturday he is to be the guest of the Laurier Club in Vancouver at a luncheon and will address a public meeting at night.

He is known as the silver-tongued orator of the East. His career has been attracting much attention of late years as he has risen to one of the commanding positions in the Liberal Government.

Hon. Mr. Cannon's visit to the Coast will last only this week as he is presiding over the Ministry of Justice as well as his own during the absence in Australia of the Hon. Ernest Lapointe.

The luncheon Friday will really be the first of the Confederation celebration functions which will centre attention of the people of the country on the development and unifying of Canada.

Stephen Jones, president, will preside at the luncheon, which will be attended by women as well as men. The tickets are being placed on sale this afternoon at the Dominion Hotel, Ivel's Pharmacy, L. U. Conyers & Company, Bishop & Worthington and Macnicol & Company.

COMMITTEE ASKS PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR JUBILEE

Sum of $5,000 is Required to Put Over Complete Programme Arranged

With $5,000 of its budget of $11,000 to be raised in the next ten days, all branches of the Diamond Jubilee organization got down to-day to a determined drive to make a success of Greater Victoria's Confederation programme. A large clock at 1107 Government Street is keeping pace with the contributions received.

"We will spend precisely what is on hand when the celebration opens, and that means that unless the fullest support is forthcoming from all classes of citizens within the next ten days, that some sections of our programme will be eliminated. We will not face a deficit," stated an official of the organization to-day.

Confidence that the sum required would be raised in time was expressed to-day by the committees in charge of the celebration. The ticket system was explained in detail, showing definite returns for all contributions to the Diamond Jubilee funds.

A general ticket is being sold at $5, which will admit two persons to the reserved and seated accommodation at all events, excluding the Diamond Jubilee ball. For the Diamond Jubilee ball a special ticket is being sold, at $5 per couple; while a third ticket, $10 for two persons, covers the ball and everything on the programme. Children under twelve years of age, accompanied by their parents or grown-ups, will be admitted free to every function at which admission is to be charged. In addition to a considerable number of events free to all, reserved seat accommodation will be provided at the Vancouver Island field and track meet championships, the lacrosse game be-

BYRD AEROPLANE CREW READY FOR ATLANTIC JUMP

Four Men Hope to Leave New York for Paris Before Another Day Passes; Britisher Plans Westward Flight Across Atlantic; Other Airmen Preparing for Atlantic and Pacific Flights

Plans for transatlantic and transpacific aeroplane flights which promise to make the Summer of 1927 notable in the history of aviation, continue to claim much attention among the people of this and the older continents. Of the several ambitious flights now being prepared for the first to be attempted probably will be the New York-Paris flight of Commander R. E. Byrd and his three companions in the monoplane America. Latest reports were that they might get away from New York before another day passed, though the weather reports still held uncertainties.

Other flights being prepared for are one from England to New York and return, three weeks hence; one from Berlin to New York and one to San Francisco without a stop, if possible, and return; one from Germany to an unnamed eastern United Stated point and return; one from San Francisco to Honolulu before the end of July, and one from Great Britain to India before the Fall if possible, but in the Fall if the weather is unfavorable for the most part until then.

ATLANTIC FLIGHT

London, June 21.—Capt. F. P. Curtney, winner of the serial derby for the King's Cup in 1923, aspires to be the first transatlantic flier to cross from Great Britain to North America. He hopes to fly three weeks hence in a Dornier flying boat from Southampton to New York and back. He plans on stopping two or three hours at Valentia, Ireland, and Newfoundland for refuelling.

GERMAN PLANS ATLANTIC FLIGHT

Munich, Bavaria, June 21.—Ernest Udet, noted German airman, anxious to fly to North America and back to Germany.

"If a suitable machine is placed at my disposal," he said to-day, "I am prepared to undertake the flight to a United States and return in the course of this Summer."

BRITAIN-INDIA FLIGHT PLANNED

London, June 21.—A further attempt by the British Air Force to make a non-stop aeroplane flight from Great Britain to India before Autumn is now being considered. Sir Samuel Hoare, Secretary of State for Air, discussing the matter briefly yesterday, told the House of Commons that as far as could be seen at present it would not be possible to make another attempt before early Autumn because of storms in North India.

An attempt to set up a non-stop long distance flight record to India was started last Saturday by Flight Lieuts. C. R. Carr and P. H. MacWorth. The aviators' big bombing plane, however, was forced to descend about 100 miles from its starting place when trouble developed in the oil system.

Lieut. Carr, on a previous attempt to reach Karachi, India, in May, was forced down in the Persian Gulf.

MILITARY ATTACHE IS REMOVED FROM POST

Washington, June 21.—Lieutenant-Colonel Edward Davis has been relieved as military attache at the United States Embassy in Mexico City.

The War Department declined to comment on the move except to say the relief of Colonel Davis, who made a hurried trip to Washington some weeks ago in connection with reports of thefts and forgeries of official diplomatic documents, had been effected "without prejudice against him and for the best interests of all concerned."

ONTARIO'S FRUIT CROPS ESTIMATED

Yields of Several Varieties Reduced as Result of Frosts

Toronto, June 21—Ontario's crop prospects, especially as regards fruits, appear quite mixed, according to a crop report issued by the Provincial Department of Agriculture. For the most part tender crops, such as small fruit, vegetables and tobacco, appear to have escaped the early frosts, while plums will only be about fifteen per cent. normal. Sour cherries will be down ten to twenty per cent., but sweet cherries and pears are estimated at about fifty per cent. Seventy-five per cent. of a normal peach crop will be available this year, with a light crop in some varieties and heavy in others. Apples will be about an average crop.

ATLANTIC PLANE TO CARRY MAIL

Byrd Sworn as U.S. Mail Pilot For New York-Paris Flight

Roosevelt Field, New York, June 21.—The tri-motored monoplane America has been designated by Postmaster-General New as an official mail carrier of the United States on its forthcoming attempt to make a non-stop flight from New York to Paris.

Grover A. Whalen, vice-president of the American Trans-Oceanic Company, sponsor of the flight, said to-day that Postmaster-General New had instructed Postmaster John Kelly of New York to swear Commander Richard E. Byrd, leader of the expedition, into office as an air mail pilot. Whalen said Byrd would be sworn in this afternoon, and that the mail to be carried to Paris had closed last night at 10 o'clock.

Whalen indicated there was a possibility of a hop-off within twenty-four hours, although he added no definite decision as to the time of the take-off had been reached.

It is expected the first motion picture record of a transatlantic flight will be made from the America. Lieut. George O. Noville, radio expert of Byrd's crew, says he will take two automatic cameras. Under favorable conditions he expects to make some clear pictures.

RADIO LINK

Radio fans who can tune their sets to a 600-metre wave-length and can decipher the continental code letters WOW, will have a chance to catch messages from the America. The plane's 100-watt transmitter will send out its call letters continuously to indicate the plane's safety during the transatlantic flight.

PACIFIC FLIGHT SOON

San Diego, Cal., June 21—Lieutenants J. Lester Maitland and A. J. Hegenberger, United States army fliers who soon are to attempt a Transpacific flight from the California coast to Honolulu, are here to-day. They landed at Rockwell Field yesterday after a flight from Tucson, Arizona.

Planes Offered For Lindbergh's Use

Washington, June 21.—In recognition of his New York-Paris flight, the Navy Department has authorized Col. Charles A. Lindbergh to make use of United States naval aviation equipment at any time he chooses for either local or cross-country flying. The authorization was given in the form of a certificate and marks the first time a man outside the service has been granted permission regularly to operate naval aircraft.

Mounted Police Head Visits B.C.

Vancouver, June 21.—Cortlands Starnes, commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, is in Vancouver to-day on his annual inspection tour. He will attend the sessions of the Dominion Police Chiefs' Convention here during the latter part of the week.

He arrived here yesterday.

ELECTRIC WIRING RULES PUBLISHED

Committee of Canadian Engineering Standards Association Meets in Winnipeg

Winnipeg, June 21—Under the auspices of the Canadian Engineering Standards Association, the committee on the Canadian Electrical Code has been in session four days in Winnipeg, representatives being present from the provinces of British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec and Nova Scotia, including representatives of the provincial governments, the Fire Underwriters' Association, electrical inspection authorities, public utilities and manufacturers from coast to coast.

The draft code was under discussion and as a result of the deliberations of the committee, was approved for printing by the Canadian Engineering Standards Association. This first edition will cover rules and regulations for eletcric wiring and installation of electrical apparatus.

An attempt has been made to get away from the multiplicity of regulations now existing in provincial and municipal by-laws, and to make the operation of these rule Dominion-wide. This Canadian code is unique in this respect in that it combines regulations covering both fire and accident hazards.

MAN FOUGHT ON HIS WAY TO PRISON

Fredricton, N.B., June 21.—In a desperate eleventh-hour attempt to prevent himself being taken to the Dorchester penitentiary to serve a two-year-old term, with lashes at the beginning and close of the term, for an offence against a little girl, William Langley, also known as William Sutton, held Sheriff J. B. Hawthorne, his deputy and police officers at bay yesterday with the sheriff's own revolver until the sheriff's wife informed the officials there were no cartridges in the weapon.

The officers then closed on the prisoner and overcame him after a tremendous struggle.

Langley had seized the revolver as it lay on the seat of the car in which he was to be taken to Dorchester. Previously he had been able to draw a knife and slash at Deputy Sheriff Edwin Hall. He was handcuffed after he was overcome.

In the struggle the prisoner was severely handled. He was able to grip Deputy Hall with his teeth and bite one of his arms in several places.

The prisoner finally was placed in the rear seat of the car, lashed with rope to the foot rail, and with three trunk straps about his body, handcuffs on his wrists and shackles on his legs, the party left to deliver the prisoner at Dorchester. Langley loudly declared he would not serve his sentence and would not take the lashes.

PIMPLES ON FACE ITCHED BADLY

Skin Became Scaly, Arms Later Affected. Cuticura Heals.

"I suffered from pimples that broke out all over my face. They were large and red, and itched so badly that I scratched them until they would bleed. My skin became scaly and started to peel off, especially around my mouth. Later my arms became affected with pimples.

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they helped me. I continued the treatment and in about two weeks I was healed." (Signed) E. M. Bradley, 185 Queen St., Charlottetown, P. E. I., Aug. 11, 1926.

Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum to promote and maintain skin purity, skin comfort and skin health; the Soap to cleanse and purify, Ointment to soothe and heal, and Talcum to powder and refresh.

JUBILEE EVENTS ARE TO BE BROADCAST

Big Radio Preparations For Canada to Listen in on Ottawa July 1

Ottawa, June 21.—Arrangement for the radio Confederation Jubilee broadcast, July 1, are going forward successfully, and it is expected it will be one of the most ambitious "tie-in" schemes ever attempted in North America. Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba as far west as Winnipeg have already been linked up in tests, and success is expected to attend further tests eastward and westward. It is hoped the carillon in the Peace Tower and Confederation speeches and singing will be heard throughout Canada through various local stations, twenty in number, heard as plainly at Victoria and Halifax as at points near Ottawa.

It is also the objective of the scheme that the programme will be heard overseas over high-powered, short-wave transmission from the Canadian Marconi station at Drummondville, Que.

WIRES USED

The connecting up of the local stations has involved the setting up and the linking up of telephone lines from coast to coast. There will be 21,650 miles of line and fifty-three repeaters will be in use along the way. These are designed to amplify the sounds at approximately 200-mile distances.

The stations in the hook-up include Winnipeg, Regina, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon, Calgary, Red Deer, Edmonton, Vancouver, New Westminster and Victoria.

CARILLON TO BE HEARD

The broadcast will consist of the inauguration ceremonies of Confederation Jubilee held on Parliament Hill on July 1 at 11 a.m., Eastern-standard time (8 a.m. Victoria time), when there will be a fifteen-minute programme on the carillon of the Peace Tower of the Parliament Buildings, brief speeches and the playing of massed bands, concluding with the singing of "O Canada."

At 2 p.m., Eastern standard time ((11 a.m. Victoria time), the official programme will be broadcast, but the real programme so far as the broadcasting is concerned will commence at 9.30 p.m., Eastern standard time (6.30 p.m. Victoria time). It will be delivered from a studio in the Parliament Buildings.

Three million dollars' worth of equipment, lines and apparatus are being utilized.

INQUIRY INTO TWO DEATHS IN WINNIPEG

ASKED NO QUESTIONS

"You understand you may question any of the witnesses if you choose," explained the coroner.

"Yes sir," replied Nelson quietly, but he didn't speak again.

A dramatic incident of the inquest occurred when William Patterson was on the stand.

"Tell the jury how you came to discover your wife's body," said the coroner.

"I sent up a silent prayer," he answered, "and asked God to direct me to where my wife was. I was kneeling beside the bed and as I got up my hand happened to push in the sheet that was hanging close to the floor. As it moved I noticed the sleeve of my wife's dress. I looked under the bed and there was my wife—dead."

GIRL SOLD FLOWERS

How little Lois Cowan, a schoolgirl, was selling artificial flowers when last seen alive was told by W. S. Fillingham. Mr. Fillingshm asked her why she was selling flowers at such a late hour when she came to his door at 9.30 o'clock on the night of June 9. She replied that she was trying to help her family by bringing in a little more money. Mr. Fillingham identified the little black box she was using to carry the flowers in and which was later found in the house where the body was discovered.

DOCTOR TESTIFIED

Dr. T. P. McCowan, who held the post-morten on the body, declared death had been caused by strangulation and smothering. He described a thumb mark and other bruises on the throat and indications of pressure on the mouth and nose. The lungs showed signs of asphyxiation, he said, and there was a mark on the top of the head as if the victim had been struck with a blunt instrument. This blow, he thought, would have been enough to stun, but not to kill the girl. The elbows were bruised as if they had been held.

The coroner stated that when he arrived on the scene Sunday night he fixed the time of death as three days previous.

The father of the child told the court Lola had left home at 6.30 p.m. and that was the last he had seen of her until he was called to the undertaker's.

Mrs. Cowan bore up as bravely as her husband and did not break down when she was called upon to describe and afterwards identified the pleated skirt, the sweater and the other articles of clothing the murdered girl had been wearing.

Dr. McCowan indicated Mrs. Patterson had died in very much the same way as Lois Cowan except that she had been more smothered than strangled. The top of the head was bruised as if with a blunt instrument. The blow could not have been caused by the hammer as it had not broken the skull, he said.

INSURANCE POLICY JUDGMENT RESERVED

Benefit Association Disputes Liability For $2,500

Judgment has been reserved by the B.C. Court of Appeals on the appeal of the British Columbia Mutual Benefit Association from the judgment of Mr. Justice Gregory and the verdict of a jury awarding $2,500 to William Turner, Vancouver merchant on the death of his wife, Frances Eleanor Turner.

Mrs. Turner obtained a membership certificate in the association February, 1926, and died in January of the following year. By the collection of a dollar from each member the payment of $2,500 was due to relatives on her death. For the association, however, it was claimed, she secured membership by misrepresentation and by concealing facts in regard to her health.

REPLENISH TROUT STOCK IN LAKES

Superintendent of Cowichan Hatchery Has Stock For District Here

With plans to replenish the fish stock of Prospect, Killarney and Heals Lakes, J. H. Castley, superintendent of the British Columbia Division of the Dominion Department of Fisheries hatchery at Cowichan Lake, arrived here yesterday and made his headquarters at the Dominion Hotel. Prospect Lake and Killarney Lake will be given 20,000 trout of the cutthroat variety, and Heals Lake will be given a batch of 5,000 small trout. Prospect Lake will be replenished some time to-day.

There are other lakes near Victoria which will be given attention by the superintendent in his restocking work. The Sooke district will be given its share of the young fish.

At Comox Lake and Nanaimo district water bodies large quantities of young trout have been planted this year and during July a large shipment of Kamloops trout will be distributed over the Island.

ENGLISH CRICKET

London, June 21.—Gloucestershire defeated Northamptonshire by seven wickets in an English County cricket match finished yesterday. The scores were: Northamptonshire, 92 and 124; Gloucestershire, 182 (Bloodworth 83) and 36 for three wickets. The bowling of Parker in Northants's second innings was deadly. He took nine wickets for 46 runs. Thomas of Northants had a good day with the ball, six Gloucester wickets falling to his credit for 68 runs.

Scores in other matches at the close of play yesterday were:

Yorkshire, 81; Middlesex, 178; Yorkshire, 262.

Oxford, 226 (Butterworth 110); Surrey, 206; Oxford 141 for no wickets (Crawley 100).

Essex, 260; Hampshire, 248; Essex, 150 for five wickets.

Sussex, 551; Warwickshire, 294 for eight wickets.

Derby, 213; Somerset, 148; Derby, 175 for nine wickets.

Kent, 441; Lancashire, 321; Kent, three runs for one wicket.

Worcester, 134; Glamorgan, 145; Worcester, sixty-nine runs for three wickets.

Notts, 320; Leicester, 243; Notts, 163 for one wicket.

APPEAL COURT HEARS ASSESSMENT POINT

Division of Land, Changing Tax Rate, Questioned

Whether a Supreme Court judge can rectify the error of an assessor who has divided land for assessment purposes and order the land to be assessed as a whole again was argued before the B.C. Court of Appeal yesterday in the action re Municipal Act and Robert McBride. Judgment was reserved.

The taxpayer, Robert McBride disposed of part of his land which was in one parcel as a right-of-way to a railway company, thus cutting his land in two. The property is being used as a truck garden but the assessor assessed the larger portion 27.11 acres as agricultural land at $500 per acre and the smaller portion, about four acres as suitable for industrial purposes at $1,000 per acre.

The Court of Revision confirmed the assessment but Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald allowed an appeal from the decision and set aside the assessment.

Dugald Donaghy appeared for the municipality and A. T. Cowan for the respondent.

KAGA MARU WILL ARRIVE FROM FAR EAST TO-MORROW

With 100 tons of cargo and twenty-eight passengers for this port, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha transpacific vessel Kaga Maru will dock here at 1.30 a.m. to-morrow, according to advices from the ship. The vessel is from Japan and China ports and after discharging here will proceed to Seattle. She will discharge sixty-five bags of mail here.

HELEN WILLS WINS AFTER HARD MATCH

Miss G. R. Sterry, Unknown English Player, Gives American Star Big Surprise

Wimbledon, Eng., June 21.—Miss Helen Wills, former American champion, successfully weathered the first round of the singles in the Wimbledon lawn tennis tournament here to-day, but only after a hard struggle. She defeated Miss G. R. Sterry, a comparatively unknown English player, in three sets, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

The match, which was expected to be practically a walkover for Miss Wills, proved to be one of the most stubbornly-contested ones in which Miss Wills has participated since her return to the tennis courts after her illness of last year.

Miss Sterry in the second set actually outdrove and outplayed the former American champion, to the intense surprise of the crowd.

CARRIED WIFE TO BED

Suffered So She Could Not Walk. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minesing, Ontario.—"I am a practical nurse and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to suffering women. For three months I was almost helpless and could not sit at the table long enough to drink a cup of tea. Many a time my husband carried me to bed, I would be so weak. Then he read in the paper of a woman suffering as I did who got better after taking the Vegetable Compound, so he went and got it for me. When I had taken three bottles I was just like a new woman and have had splendid health ever since. When I feel any bearing-down pains I always take it; sometimes a half bottle or whatever I need. It is my only medicine and I have told many a one about it. Any one wanting to know more about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I will gladly write to her. I do all I can to recommend it for I feel I owe my life and strength to it."—Mrs. Neal Bowser, R.R. 1, Minesing, Ontario.

Do you feel broken-down, nervous, and weak sometimes? Do you have this horrid feeling of fear which sometimes comes to women when they are not well? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly and persistently will relieve this condition. C

Vancouver and C.N.R. Come to New Agreement

Vancouver, June 21.—Tentative basis for settlement of Vancouver's suit against the Canadian National Railways was reached at a conference here to-day between representatives of the two bodies, which "is very satisfactory from the city's standpoint," Mayor Louis D. Taylor announced to-day. No particulars were given. The suit was in connection with the railway's failure to build a previously-proposed hotel here. It is understood the city's Supreme Court action will not be withdrawn, but will remain in suspension until the city has definite assurance that the agreement reached tentatively to-day has complete ratification.

No further conference will be held at present.

W. A. Kingsland, general manager of the Western Region, and Alastair Fraser, general counsel, were negotiators for the Canadian National Railways, and Mayor Taylor and G. E. McCrossan, corporation counsel, for the city.

The city's original demands included a hotel on Georgia Street and completion of development work at False Creek.

tween Victoria and New Westminster, bicycle races, the grand schools' pageant at the Willows, the Armories carnival dance, the water gala at the inner harbor. Free admissions will rule at the grand parade and historical pageant, the flag raising ceremony, Sunday open air service, as well as at many other parts of the programme, where reserved seating space has not been provided. The tariff for the tickets has been so arranged that their cost will not prove a hardship on anyone, but will return a high value for the outlay. By securing their tickets in advance the public will assist the committee in planning its programme.

GENEROUS SUPPORT

Merchants and business enterprises in Victoria have supported the plans generously, through the medium of historical and special floats. Many private citizens have come forward with donations to the Diamond Jubilee Fund, from which the three-day programme will be financed. Donations are acknowledged from Col. Molson, the Misses Galt, E. T. Galt, J. Galt, Mrs. Armstrong, B. C. Cement Company, Norman Yarrow, D. R. Angus, and the Associated Brewing Companies.

William Ivel, chairman of the pageant committee, will speak over radio station CFCT at 7.35 p.m. Thursday, on behalf of the Diamond Jubilee Committee. A tag day in aid of the funds will be held on Saturday, to afford an opportunity for those who wish to contribute in this manner. Subscription lists opened at The Times, The Colonist, the City Hall and at the Jubilee Headquarters, 1107 Government Street, are attracting attention now, and many are choosing this means of aiding the joint celebration of Greater Victoria.

Plans for the Diamond Jubilee ball, to be held at the Empress Hotel on the night of July 1, are advancing rapidly. His Honor the Administrator of the Province will open the ball, leading the grand march. Mrs. Beatrix Cameron has composed a special march which will be played for the first time on this occasion. Plans for the ball are under the care of Mrs. C. P. Hill, convener, and a prominent committee. Mrs. Chas. E. Wilson is attending to the musical arrangements, while an energetic committee is working out a scheme of red, white and blue floral decorations in honor of the occasion. Ozard's orchestra, augmented for the affair, will render a programme of special dance music. Tickets for the ball will be limited and are being rapidly taken up. Many are arranging dinner parties for the night, and plan to take in the ball to follow.

The Armories Carnival dance, to be held on the night of July 2, will be a gay affair. Serpentine, snappers, paper blowouts, ticklers, balloons, and confetti will be distributed free to each guest. Admission will be fifty cents. Prices for the grand march and other events, as well as tombola prizes, will be given during the evening. Folk dances and novelties are planned on an attractive programme for the affair.

The massed contingent of 2,000 school children at the Willows, the parade of 100 floats, including an elaborate and unique moving historical pageant, open air services with massed choirs and bands, and the grand water gala will be other events on a busy three-day programme commencing July 1.

PRINCETON GIVES MASSEY A DEGREE

DEGREE FOR PERSHING

General John J. Pershing also received the degree of Doctor of Laws.

In presenting General Pershing, Prof Magee referred to his extraordinary tact and skill in directing the training, transportation and distribution of the United States Expeditionary Forces in the World War, his "super-magnanimity" in urging the union of all forces under one command, and his serene confidence in his officers and men."

OTHERS HONORED

Other honorary degrees were conferred as follows:

Harry Emerson Fosdick, New York, "a leader for many to whom the formulas of the church are unsatisfying but who still hope to see in these latter days the Gospel of the Kingdom of God guiding and controlling the world," Doctor of Divinity.

Albert Abraham Michelson, Chicago, Doctor of Science.

Samuel Cochran, missionary in China under the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, Doctor of Philanthropy.

William Tennent Stockton, Jacksonville, Fla., former Rhodes scholar and attorney, Master of Arts.

EXPERTS ARE TO OUTLINE PLANS FOR NAVY CUTS

GREAT SAVING

London, June 21.—Calculations that postponement of replacement of capital ships in accordance with the British proposals would save the country £40,000,000 to £50,000,000 attracted the notice of the British taxpayers today more than any other feature of the opening of the Three-Power Naval Conference at Geneva. It is noted the United States would save a similar amount, while Japana would be richer by £28,000,000.

The respective proposals of Great Britain, the United States and Japan are set forth prominently by the newspapers here to-day, but the comment is scanty, confined for the most part to anti-government journals.

NO RACE WANTED

The London News, Liberal, approves the British proposals to a certain extent, but fears they might lead to competition in cruiser building, which, it says, would be as disastrous as the old race for battleships.

The paper wanted the Admiralty frankly to avow that it does not object to the United States building cruisers right up to the British limit, if she chooses, partly because "if the Americans choose to build, nothing can prevent them," and partly because, "it is inconceivable that the United States navy can menace Great Britain."

The News sees a greater need for an arrangement among the European powers respecting submarines and other small craft.

LONDON CHRONICLE'S VIEW

This point is also emphasized by The London Chronicle, Liberal, which contends that apart from capital ships British requirements are in nowise conditional on anything the United States does.

The London Herald, Labor-Socialist, sees no prospect of good arising from the conference, whose motive, it says, is not peace, but economy. It declares that whatever arrangements the three powers make, the cause of peace will not be advanced a jot, war will only be made cheaper.

SCRAPPING IS ESTIMATED

Geneva, June 21—The United States delegation to the Three-power Naval Conference here last evening issued a statement explaining the nature of the reduction proposals it laid before the conference yesterday, at the initial session. The statement gives an approximate estimate of the tonnage that would have to be scrapped, providing existing construction programmes were completed.

The United States, the communique maintains, would have to scrap immediately about 60,000 tons of auxiliary and combatant surface vessels and 60,000 additional tons of such craft upon completion of its present building programme, while Great Britain similarly would have to scrap about 60,000 tons in the same categories upon completion of her present programme. Japan's reduction is put at about 40,000 tons.

QUESTION OF SUBMARINES

"If the plans outlined in the United States proposal were adopted on the basis of 90,000 tons of submarines for the United States and the British Empire, respectively, and 54,000 tons for Japan," the statement reads, "no scrapping of submarines would be necessary until the present building programmes were brought to completion."

Most of the vessels to be scrapped under the United States plan, it is pointed out, are now or soon will be obsolete.

"This plan," the statement concludes, "stops competitive building, which is the chief object of this conference, averts scrapping new construction and permits moderate replacement and building programmes within clearly defined limits.

"If a lower limit of total tonnage of cruiser, destroyer and submarine classes were agreed to, the scrapping programmes would be correspondingly increased and possible building programmes would be curtailed."

The Japanese scheme as submitted yesterday admittedly is vague, but apparently means Japan will maintain her present cruiser strength, which is only slightly under that of the United States.

The British contend that by extending the life of battleships from twenty to twenty-six years, the United States and Great Britain would build six fewer battleships in the next decade than stipulated in the Washington agreement, and Japan four fewer.

The other main British proposals include reducing the size of future battleships from 35,000 to 30,000 tons and of their guns from 16 inches to 13½; making aircraft carriers smaller by 2,000 tons and limiting the size of future cruisers to 7,500 tons, and their guns to 6 inch, instead of 8 inch.

WOMEN'S PROGRESSIVE CLUB

The Progressive Conservative Club has arranged to hold another social on Tuesday, July 5, at the request of many patrons. The social will take the form of partner whist when valuable prizes will be given. At 10.15 there will be a novel dance when prizes will be given to both old and young for certain dances. The club has been fortunate in renting the Sons of Canada Hall, View Street, which is spacious and cool and has an excellent dance floor. Further particulars will be given by telephoning 3805.

FUNERAL FRIDAY OF FRANCIS T. STACEY

Funeral services will be held on Friday over the remains of the late Francis T. Stacey, who passed away last Friday. The cortege will leave the S. J. Curry and Son Funeral Home, proceeding to the Metropolitan Church where Rev. Dr. Sipprell will conduct the service at 2.30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

Mr. Stacey was born at St. Thomas, Ontario, sixty-two years ago. Coming from a military family, he joined the 25th Battalion and soon rose to the rank of adjutant, an office which he held for a number of years. Moving West to Winnipeg, in 1911 he accepted an important position with the Grain Growers' Association, which post he held until coming to Victoria in 1916.

He joined the Metropolitan Church taking a very active part in all church work, being a member of the official board for a number of years, and occupied the positions of usher and envelope secretary until the time of his death.

While perhaps not publicly demonstrating his Christian faith, he lived the Golden Rule in his daily life. Those who knew him best loved him most.

Mr. Stacey leaves to mourn his loss besides his widow of 1250 Dallas Road, one son, Gordon H., of La Pas, Manitoba, and three sisters, Mrs. (Rev.) W. H. Harvey of Waterloo, Ontario, Mrs. David Beescroft Searsdale, N. Y., and Mrs. John Washburn, Montpelier, Vermont, two brothers, Colonel John Stacey, Sydney, Australia, and Major Geo. Stacey, Hamstead, London, England.

Customs Inquiry In Maritimes

St. John, N.B., June 21.—The smuggling of liquor from Canada to the United States has been revealed at earlier sittings of the Customs Commission, but it is stated the Maritime Provinces will produce evidence of extensive liquor smuggling into Canada.

Also the commission will be offered evidence of the smuggling of other commodities during its sittings in this part of Canada.

The commission has come to the Maritime Provinces after visiting the six other Provinces in its tour from British Columbia eastward. The initial meeting in the Maritimes was held here this morning.

ESTATE IS DIVIDED

Chicago, June 21—Two nieces, Miss Minna Field Burnaby of Leicestershire, England, and Mrs. Florence Field Lindsay of Southborough, Mass., are left the major share of the $1,750,000 estate of Barbour Lathrop, Chicago capitalist, under terms of his will filed here to-day. Mr. Lathrop died in Philadelphia May 17. The two nieces are given $50,000 outright, and the remainder is to be placed in a trust fund.

Victorian Named Officer in Army

Kingston, Ont., June 21.—The Royal Military College was not founded to train men to go to an aggressive war, but so that Canadians could live with the assurance they had trained men should an emergency arise, said Hon. J. L. Ralston, Minister of National Defence, addressing the cadets at the closing exercises of the college yesterday.

Two British Columbia cadets were among those recommended for commissions. J. C. Hodson of Victoria will enter the Royal Army Service Corps and J. U. O. Elliott, Vancouver, will take a commission in the Royal Artillery.

BOYS RESCUED DURING FIRE

San Francisco, June 21—Two firemen were injured yesterday in a $20,000 fire which swept a three-story building here housing seventy-seven orphan boys. Police and firemen rescued twenty boys and two automobile salesmen carried Rev. Father D. O. Crowley, bedridden priest, who is head of the orphanage, to a place of safety. A defective flue is believed to have caused the fire.

A WISE MOVE

MARINERS WHO VISIT THIS PORT AT all seasons of the year will learn with a considerable amount of relief and satisfaction that a radio beacon transmitter will be installed at Race Rocks and remove the menace of the "silent zone" in foggy weather.

The radiotelegraph branch of the Department of Marine and Fisheries has acted wisely in this important matter. The equipment it is proposed to use is of the automatic type and the beacon will send out its warnings to ships within a radius of seventy-five to one hundred miles as soon as the fog horns commence their dirge.

Meteorological experts have not been able to explain to the layman just what causes the "silent zone" in the region of Race Rocks; but mariners are aware of it and not a few of them have come to grief in the middle of it. Hence the wisdom of the Government's action.

LIQUOR IN PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

NOMINATION DAY FOR THE PRINCE Edward Island provincial contest produced no surprises. Sixty candidates were nominated for the fifteen districts from which the thirty members, fifteen councillors and fifteen assemblymen, will be selected at the polls next Saturday. It thus resolves itself into a straight fight between the representatives of the two parties. Premier Stewart will lead the Government's forces and Mr. A. C. Saunders, K.C., will direct the Liberal campaign.

The present Administration in Prince Edward Island took office in 1923 and it is now appealing to the electorate on a platform of Government control and sale of liquor, a system similar to that in operation in British Columbia and other provinces of the Dominion. The Liberal Party is opposed to such a policy and its candidates will endeavor to convince the people that they would be much better off if they would leave the present prohibition law as it stands. Its leader contends that a real attempt to enforce the existing "dry" regulations would be successful. Premier Stewart's followers are pointing to the general change of view throughout Canada in this respect as at least one reason why Prince Edward Island should fall into line.

The contest in P.E.I. is similar to that which took place in Ontario a few months ago. The issue is one of liquor. No plebiscite is being submitted. If the Government of Premier Stewart shall be defeated, it will mean that no alteration will be made in the liquor laws. Should he be sustained, Prince Edward Island will join the other seven provinces in a control system. Nova Scotia then will be the only "dry" Province in Canada.

AFTER FIVE YEARS OF FASCISM

MANY INFLUENTIAL REVIEWS AND newspapers on both sides of the Atlantic have devoted a considerable amount of thought and space recently to Fascism and Mussolini. Much of it has been occasioned by the inflation of the lira with borrowed money, the drastic cuts in the wages of Italian workers, and the various militant pronouncements of the Duce himself.

One obviously thorough survey has been made by a writer in the current issue of The Round Table who describes conditions in Italy after five years of Fascist rule. He begins by quoting the party motto for 1927: "All Power to All Fascism!" and marvels at the suggestion that anything still remained to do. From a general description of the manner in which the Syndicates Law operates—in which he asks whether any advantages such a system furnishes can possibly make up for its evils: the loss of all public and private liberty—he proceeds to expose Fascist exclusiveness and how Fascism, as Mussolini declared to a French review recently, "rests not upon the will of the people, but upon force." We select a few of the statements of fact which he makes:

The calendar dates from the coming of the Fascists into power.

All secondary and elementary school teachers have to declare their submission to the Fascist creed, and failure to do so has meant dismissal.

University professors are required to sign an oath of allegiance.

All anti-Fascist professors are kept out of the universities, even those who had taken "first" in their examinations.

From his exposure of the method by which the "fascistisation" of schools is being carried out, how the "Government Party has monopolized the whole moral and physical education of the young, both inside and outside the schools," he points out that in the administration of justice this exclusiveness is even more felt. Seventeen judges—to give a single instance—were dismissed "for having expressed opinions contrary to the regime, and on December 8 last attention was publicly drawn to their punishment as a warning." The point in this, of course, as the writer of the article notes, is that "when a public official, magistrate, professor or teacher is punished for such opinions, it must obviously be for something said in the course of private conversation, as any expression in public is out of the question."

How representative government has completely disappeared is explained in detail. The writer notes that the electoral system has fallen so far from favor that it has been abolished even inside the Fascist Party. Secretaries, consuls, and other high officials no longer are chosen by the members, but nominated from above. As to the citizens, "they pay rates and taxes, which are becoming heavier from day to day, but they have no voice in public affairs." Still he would not be disturbed so much if the press had been spared. For example:

The press law of 1925, while repressive, at least left some newspapers in existence which were not mere mouthpieces of the regime.

Last November, however, this law was superseded by arbitrary action; all the papers except the subservient ones were suppressed.

In passing, the writer refers to the fate of the Corriera della Sera and the Stampa of Turin, their respective editors, Senator Albertini and Senator Frassati, being driven from editorial posts, the ability with which they filled them long having entitled them to foremost places in the realm of international journalism. He proceeds:

Every newspaper in Italy is told by the prefect every evening by telephone what news it may publish and what comments it may make. These orders are later confirmed by a written notice which the editor has to sign.

No journalist can be employed without the consent of the authorities. All the best ones of the old Liberal regime who have not renounced their political faith have been dismissed and obliged to emigrate or to change their occupation.

Very exhaustively does the writer deal with the Defence of the State Law and the various penalties imposed for attempts to leave the country without a passport, concluding with the suggestion that those who boast that Fascism has revived Italian patriotism can be answered with Voltaire's famous retort: "A man who has no part, direct or indirect, in the government of his country can neither consider himself nor actually be a good patriot."

THE MOVING-PICTURE PROPOSAL

IT IS HOPED THE CITY COUNCIL WILL act with caution when it deals with the moving-picture industry proposal at its meeting to-night.

There are many other factors to be taken into consideration besides scenic and climatic advantages. Victoria is fortunate in this regard; experts agree on the point. But the profitable marketing of films, to say nothing of the intricate details of finance and actual production, are points that demand careful study. We also should remember that there is very formidable competition in this field. The producer of a moving picture these days is not catering to a small audience; he is catering to the public taste of practically the whole world.

If this is a logical place for a big motion-picture industry it should not be difficult to induce one or more of the powerful companies to come here for very moderate concessions.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

OUR TRADE TREATY WITH AUSTRALIA

From The West Australian, Perth

Between Canada and Australia a commercial treaty was recently concluded. To what extent the trade agreement will serve to equalize matters it is too soon yet to form a definite opinion. The treaty has its hostile critics in both countries, but generally the feeling seems to be that it should be given a fair trial. Mr. Bruce, himself, is sanguine as to its ultimate beneficial results. He did not, however, conceal his disappointment, when speaking on the question at Vancouver on Monday, as to its operation up to date. Nor did he fail to remind Canadians that it was they who had, so far, been reaping the advantages of the treaty and that its permanence was dependent on their buying more Australian goods.

Preferential trade is all well enough, but not if the mutual element is wanting. Objection may be urged against the pronounced preference which the Commonwealth tariff confers on so many articles of British manufacture on the score of inadequate reciprocal tariff treatment. But that objection cannot be sustained, for not only is Australia under obligations to Britain which she owes to none of the Dominions, but Britain is her greatest free market. The case of Canada belongs to quite another category. Her people cannot reasonably hope or expect Australia to confer on them operative trade preferences which stimulate their trade if the preferences she nominally receives in return fail to give somthing like a corresponding fillip to Australian trade.

JOYCE KILMER'S TREES

From The Chicago Tribune

Beyond the little valley where I live is a great wood that spreads like a fan, and its hills are set with a hundred stately trees; today I walked there, and as I ascended to the crest I came upon the pearl of greatest price—the sure, sweet signals of returning life after the funeral of Winter; afar the fires of Spring burned on a score of hillsides, and the earth seemed vibrant and expectant of the first thrust of the husbandman's plough, as a virgin awaits the touch of a heaven-sent mate; the great elms and oaks, which men believed were dead, were a filigree of colors at their tops and they whispered to one another in the new wonder of their ressurrection; but the thorn tree—the tree of great repentance—seemed scarcely alive save for little drops of gold on its red limbs near its heavy thorns, for there is a legend that the thorn tree is last to leaf because careless men once pierced the brow of a young god with its stinging lances, and the goddess of Spring is slow to touch its roots with healing. (You of the great city may not know this legend.) And I could not number the birds nor tell their kind of multitude, except for a flash of fire in the tallest tree and the sure, insistent mating-call of the cardinal. I was a brother to all Joyce Kilmer's lovely trees, and I pressed my face against the bole of a giant elm and listened. . . . Joyce Kilmer was alive! I heard him singing again—singing under a great tree whose leaves are for the healing of the Nations.

Do You Mean What You Say?

"ATLAS"

We often hear the word "Atlas" used in referring to one who is attempting to carry heavy responsibility, or who is shouldering more of a burden than most people care to carry. The allusion is that the Greek god, Atlas who, according to mythology, was charged with the care of the pillars which upheld heaven. Atlas is often pictured to-day as carrying the earth on his back, and in the same connection, the name is applied to a book holding maps of the world.

Canadian Questions and Answers

NEWFOUNDLAND AND CONFEDERATION

Q.—Why did not Newfoundland join Confederation?

A.—The colony of Newfoundland had a chance to enter Confederation following the Quebec conference of 1864 at which it was represented, but the people voted against the proposition. The British North America Act, however, provides for its admission when the latter desires it and terms are agreed upon. The question was considered again in 1869, in 1888 and 1892 but without results as yet.

CONFEDERATION AND AFTER

Sixty Years of Progress

NO. 28

CONSERVATION OF CANADIAN WILD LIFE

"The wild animal life of to-day is not ours to do with as we please. The original stock is given to us in trust for the benefit both of the present and the future. We must render an account of this trust to those who come after us."

—"The Sportsman's Code of Ethics"—

A great many of our citizens have heard about the conservation of wild life, but probably only a few of them could give the essential reasons for this conservation. It has been estimated by competent authorities that the annual loss to Canadian agriculture through insect depredations is $125,000,000 annually, and it is well known that birds are the chief natural factors which tend to keep insects in check; in fact if these injurious insects were to increase without any natural control there would be practically no vegetation on this continent in a very short time so it is quite obvious that the protection of our birds is essential from the point of national economy.

Here are some of our very useful feathered friends: For the protection of trees and foliage—warbler, chickadee, phoebe, downy woodpecker. Aerial insect destroyers—whippoorwill, swallows and crows. Destroyers of rodents—owls and hawks.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, when Governor-General of Canada, took a very real interest in the conservation of Canadian birds, and personally saw that nesting boxes were distributed through the grounds of Government House similar to those used by the Ottawa Improvement Commission in Rockcliffe Park and the Dominion Government at the Central Experimental Farm.

It is impossible to even approximately estimate the value of our wild animal life in dollars and cents, but it is well to remember that moose, for example, not only furnishes our Indians of the northern woods with meat but provides them with clothing as well. The buffalo within the limits of the last century has been reduced from millions to practical extermination, total extermination in fact if it had not been for the excellent wild animal conservation accomplished by the Dominion Parks Branch of the Department of the Interior.

Canadians have excellent reasons for being proud of their national parks, which comprise a total area of nearly 9,000 square miles, and are absolute preserves for wild life; hunting being totally prohibited within their borders, and fishing allowed only under strict regulations. Banff is especially an ideal spot for the animal lover, as excellent natural paddocks have been constructed in this vicinity where buffalo, wapiti, mountain sheep, goat and deer are confined for those who wish to see these animals in ideal surroundings. An excellent motto for every hunter and sportsman is: "No species of animal should be destroyed at a greater rate than it can increase."

One of the most encouraging signs at present is the increasing number of nature books being published, and it is thought that our future citizens will realize more fully each year the priceless asset that "Wild Life Conservation" is to our country.

Shirley

Shirley, June 21.—There was a good attendance at the regular meeting of the Shirley Women's Institute on Saturday at the schoolhouse. The president, Mrs. Percy Clark, was in the chair and Miss A. S. Morris acted as secretary during the absence of Mrs. D. C. Milligan. An interesting paper on "Home Economics" was given by Mrs. Herbert Anderson, and a good report was given of the Provincial Convention by the dedlegate, Mrs. Norval Milligan. Mrs. Dods and Miss Campbell, of Otter Point Women's Institute, were visitors, and plans for a combination picnic for the children of Shirley, Otter Point and Jordan River were discussed, but nothing will be definitely decided until next week. Books as prizes for neatness and deportment have been got for Shirley schoolchildren, and will be presented at the close of the term. Routine business concluded the meeting.

A cougar was shot by A. Sullivan recently one night after an exciting chase with dogs, which treed it. It measured seven feet six inches. Another was seen at the same time, but it succeeded in making its escape.

Miss Christine Clark, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Clark, for the last two weeks, has gone to visit her friend, Miss E. Roome, at Somenos Lake, for a few days. Both girls are training as nurses at Vancouver General Hospital and return to their duties at the end of this week.

Mrs. W. H. Anderson has her sister, Mrs. Garland, visiting her for a week at Malahat Farm.

Mrs. Edwin Clark has returned home from Sooke Lake, where she has been for the last two weeks, during the illness of her father, Mr. Hugh Campbell, an old-time resident of Otter Point, who passed away last week.

MARRIAGE RULING

Montreal, June 21—Failure to publish the banns or to obtain a license permitting the omission of banns does not constitute an irregularity sufficient to bring about the annulment of the marriage, Mr. Justice Coderre decided in the Superior Court here in dismissing an action for divorce.

REFORM PLANS MADE FOR HOUSE OF LORDS

British Government Proposes Members Sit For Twelve-year Periods

London, June 21.—Sweeping changes in the constitution of the House of Lords are outlined by Lord Chancellor Cave, speaking in the House on behalf of the Government yesterday afternoon. Among the proposals outlined by the Lord Chancellor is the granting of authorization to the Sovereign to nominate a limited number of members for periods of twelve years, thus providing for representation of the Labor and other parties in the Upper House.

The Government also proposes to reduce the number of members by the election from the ranks of the hereditary peers of a fixed number to sit for twelve-year periods, one-third retiring every fourth year and being eligible for re-election. The peers to sit in the House would be selected by their fellow peers. Those not elected to the House of Lords would be eligible for election to the House of Commons. The hereditary character of the peerage, however, would be preserved.

No indication was given as to the date when the Government will introduce its bill. The programme between now and the next general election, which must be held by November, 1929, is very full, but there is a substantial body of Conservative opinion in favor of pressing through the long-awaited reforms before that date.

MANY IN CHAMBER

The Chamber presented an unusual sight yesterday afternoon. Usually debates there are attended by no more than a dozen persons, but yesterday the benches were crowded, the Bishops in their vestments adding color to the scene, while the galleries were filled with peeresses.

In the course of the debate Viscount Fitzalan declared that under the present system, the Government could introduce legislation abolishing the House of Lords and establishing a single chamber government without the Lords being able to prevent it. He said he believed Socialists particularly would take this action.

Lord Chancellor Cave declared no reform of the Upper Chamber would be carried out by the present Government without the Lords participating.

The Duke of Marlborough then moved "That in view of the failure of any scheme of House of Lords reform to arouse interest, the House regards further discussion of the question as inopportune and unprofitable."

The debate was adjourned until Wednesday.

Islands

Mayne Island, June 21.—Mrs. Popham of Victoria, has taken Captain Maude's cottage for the Summer.

Mrs. Bridges of Victoria, is staying with Colonel and Lady Constance Fawkes.

Mrs. Dean and son of Nanaimo, are staying with Mrs. S. Robson.

Railway Commission to Hear Argument in Point Grey

Vancouver, June 21—Notice has been received by C. M. Woodworth, legal adviser of the committee of West Point Grey residents who have been fighting for three years against the imposition of the toll system of telephone charges on the Point Grey exchange, that the Board of Railway Commissioners has decided to grant a rehearing of the residents' petition.

"As the order was made under a section of the act which allows the board to grant rehearings when it has a doubt of the correctness of its findings, this decision is of great value as showing a doubt does exist," explained Mr. Woodworth.

The committee of residents which has been carrying on the case will meet Wednesday evening to decide upon further steps.

When the British Columbia Telephone Company first set up the Point Grey exchange and announced the toll system would be adopted on the former Bayview telephones which were transferred to the new exchange, the residents obtained an order delaying application of the new system for a year. When the case was finally argued before Commissioners McLean, Boyce and Oliver, the rates were ratified, with Commissioner Oliver dissenting.

At that time the West Point Grey residents were supported by the municipal council, but the demand for a rehearing has been carried on by themselves.

PRINCIPLE QUOTED

The grounds set out in the application for a rehearing were a denial that the Bayview exchange was overcrowded, and a claim that the order departed from the principle established in a similar case affecting the Cadboro Bay and Gordon Head districts near Victoria.

In view of the fact that all the suburban districts around Vancouver are served by toll exchanges, the West Point Grey issue affects the whole of Greater Vancouver and may be of special importance at this time when amalgamation of the municipalities is coming closer to a reality. It is expected the residents' committee will again apply to the city and municipal councils for support in carrying on the case at the new hearing.

PLANTED 1871

To the Editor:—In reply to "T.S.H.'s" letter in Saturday's Times re two maple trees at Esquimalt which were planted to commemorate Dominion Day, I would say the date of 1867 is wrong. Two maple trees were planted by my father, H. E. Wilby, in the year 1871 on July 1, the month in which British Columbia joined the Dominion of Canada and British Columbia celebrated her first Dominion Day.

When planted, these two trees were about two feet high. One was planted each side of the garden gate. They still stand, just inside the naval reserve fence, and have grown to about sixty feet high, and about fifteen inches in diameter.

WILLIAM WILBY.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

The Victoria Daily Times, June 21, 1902

After completing the present voyage to Nome, the big liner Garonne will withdraw from that run until Fall, when she will make another voyage to the Behring seaport just before navigation closes.

Press Gallery, June 20.—The horror is over. After four months of a session marred by recriminations, and by practices on the part of the Government which all must regret, the labors of the Legislature are concluded.

The tennis courts now being prepared by the James Bay Athletic Association on the grounds opposite the drill hall on Menzies Street are now almost completed.

Messrs. Lenfesty, Maclure and Weiler have decided to leave on Tuesday for Portland, Ore., where they will participate in the grand tournament to be held under the auspices of the Sportsmen's Association of the Northwest.

The Victoria Sealing Company have advanced the increased wage demanded by the Indians. The natives refused to go to sea under $6, and held out so determinedly that the company has been obliged to accede to their behests.

Business in the police department has been very quiet lately, and even the warm weather yesterday failed to produce a single drunk in the police court this morning.

The Victoria Terminal Railway have added a third steam engine to their rolling stock. The new engine made its first run to Sidney last evening, making the trip in almost record time.

PLAN TO ENTERTAIN VISITING GUIDERS AT JUBILEE CAMP

Local Association Arranges Inspection by Mrs. Warren, Canadian Commissioner

The monthly meeting of the Local Association of Girl Guides took place yesterday afternoon in the Hamley Building, the chair being taken by Mrs. G. Phillips, district commissioner.

A report was given by Miss Leighton of the success of the recent guide garden party at Government House, which netted the sum of $694. Hearty thanks were expressed to Miss Barton, St. Margaret's School; Mrs. Suttie, St. George's School; the W.A. of St. Mary's Church, Messrs. Angus Campbell and the Conservative Club rooms committee for so kindly loaning chairs, tables, china, etc., for the event; to the Hudson's Bay Co. for advertising to the Boy Scouts and to other kind friends for assistance. The tea convener, Mrs. Symons, with Mrs. Goward and Mrs. Stirling and other ladies of the committee, were congratulated on the excellence of their arrangements.

A vote of thanks was also given to the Scottish Canadian Junior Pipe Band for their musical programme, and a donation voted to their funds.

Guides and Brownies with their guiders will take part in the jubilee parade on July 1, and arrangements were made for their place in the procession.

Plans are completed for the reception of the guiders from all parts of the Dominion for the jubilee camp to be held in the University School grounds form July 14 to 21. A course of instruction in all subjects for guide officers was given by experts from 10 o'clock to 11.30 o'clock each morning for the duration of the camp, to which all local guiders and Brown and Tawny Owls are invited. Prospective guiders will also be welcomed.

WILL ENTERTAIN GUIDERS

The local association will be the hostesses to the visiting guiders on July 15 at the residence of Mrs. G. Phillips, commissioner, at the Naval Dockyard, Esquimalt, Saturday, July 16, will be visitor's day at the camp.

An inspection of Guides and Brownies by Mrs. Warren, commissioner for Canada, will be held before the camp disperses.

Mrs. Genge, who is in charge of transport for the jubilee camp, will be glad to have a few more cars for July 14 to meet the guiders at the boat, and on July 18 when a picnic tea at the Butchart's Gardens is planned for the entertainment of the visitors.

Miss Leighton, camp adviser, announced that the Victoria district camp will be held at Sooke for ten days, beginning July 26. Owing to the shortage of guiders available, it has been reluctantly decided to limit the numbers this year. All first and second class guiders will be eligible.

HUSBAND SUES HIS WIFE FOR ALIMONY

Chicago Man Says Wife "Inveigled" Him Into Marriage

Chicago, June 21.—Walter Brinkman, twenty-seven, has petitioned the courts to order his wife, Rose Brinkman, forty, to pay him alimony and lawyer's fees. He charged she was earning a salary of $35 weekly, that she was drawing alimony from her first husband, that a railroad was paying her compensation for the death of her second husband, and that she was now attempting to divorce him, her third husband.

In the unusual petition, Brinkman claimed his wife "inveigled" him into matrimony, and that at the time she knew he was under a physician's orders not to work.

Royal Purple Meeting—The ladies of the Royal Purple will hold their meeting to-night in the Elks' clubrooms at 8 o'clock. A flannel dance will follow, where everyone is promised a good time. Good music will be provided and refreshments served. Mrs. Herbert is acting as convener for the evening.

To Hold Beach Party—The Progressive Spiritual Mission will hold their beach party on June 23 instead of June 22, at the foot of Foul Bay Road, at 8 p.m.

* * *

Mrs. L. L. Patterson was hostess at a shower held at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Wilson, Cook Street, on Wednesday evening, in honor of Miss Winnifred Tunley, whose marriage to Mr. Vernon Smith takes place shortly. The reception rooms were effectively decorated with a color scheme of pale pink, mauve and white. Little Miss Josephine Wilson, dressed as a fairy, in a dainty costume of pink and silver, rode into the room on a prettily decorated tricycle, to which was attached a sleigh containing the numerous gifts, which were presented to the bride-elect, who sat under a decorated archway, from the centre of which was suspended a large white bell of roses. After the opening of the gifts, Miss Doreen Wilson entertained with several dances in costume, and very cleverly executed many difficult steps, this feature being very much enjoyed by the guests. Among those invited were Miss Winnifred Tunley, Mrs. H. Bridger, Mrs. A. McCulloch, Mrs. Dorothy Wilson, Mrs. Moncrief, Mrs. L. L. Patterson, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. H. Savage, Mrs. J. A. Stewart, Miss Madge Hendry, Miss Ina Hendry, Miss I. Moore, Miss M. Unwin, Miss Phyllis Sheppard, Miss G. Stewart, Miss May McKenzie, Miss Nora Landers, Miss Eileen Berks, Miss S. Butler, the Misses Florence and Babe Bramwell, and Miss Blossom Barnet.

PREMIER OLIVER'S DAUGHTER IS BRIDE

Miss Mildrid Oliver and A. W. Savage United in Hamilton

Hamilton, Ont., June 21.—A wedding of more than usual interest was solemnized in St. Giles Church last evening when Mildred Emma, youngest daughter of the Hon. John Oliver, Premier of British Columbia, and Mrs. Oliver, became the wife of Albert Ward Savage of Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Savage of Victoria, B.C. The ceremony, which was witnessed by immediate relatives and a few intimate friends, was conducted by Rev. F. T. Martin. A reception at the home of the bride's brother, Dr. Robert Oliver, and Mrs. Oliver, followed the ceremony.

Hon. John Oliver gave his daughter away. She wore a lovely gown of white Canton crepe made on slender lines with heavy silk fringe for trimming and a soft tulle veil and orange blossoms. Mrs. Robert Oliver of Hamilton, sister-in-law of the bride, attended her as matron of honor. Arthur Jeff, Montreal, was best man. Mrs. John Oliver, mother of the bride, was present. Among the guests was the bride's brother, Charles Oliver, from Penticton, B.C.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Savage left for Toronto from where they will take a trip to the Thousand Islands. They will make their home in Montreal.

The manager of the Home for Aged and Infirm Men acknowledges with thanks the following donations to date: Mrs. L. W. Bukeland, magazines; Mrs. Cook, magazines; Mrs. Kelly, Daily Mirrors; Mrs. J. Fisher, Saturday Evening Posts; Mrs. Armstrong, auto rides, magazines and cake; Mrs. P. A. MacLean and Mrs. W. E. Hoadley, magazines; Mr. D. B. ORPHANAGE POUND PARTY ON THURSDAY

Thirty-four years ago the foundation stone was laid of the Protestant Orphans' Home, an institution which ever since its erection has done a wonderful work in caring for little ones bereft of one or both parents. Supported by voluntary contributions, the home depends to a large extent upon the generosity of friends for its upkeep. This year the usual tag day will be waived; so the ladies of the management committee hope that their annual Pound Party, to be held on Thursday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock, will meet with a generous response.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR HOLDS RALLY

Mayor Pendray Extends City's Welcome to Grand Chapter Delegates

Worthy Grand Matron Sister Ralthea Macleem of Nakusp is presiding over the sixteenth annual session of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star of British Columbia, which opened this morning at the Foresters' Hall.

Mayor Pendray extended the official welcome of Victoria to the delegates, who represent forty-five chapters throughout the Province. Sister Chadwick of Seattle, Most Worthy Grand Matron of the General Grand Chapter of the World, and Sister Lee of Decatur, Illinois, who represents one of the largest chapters in the world are among the distinguished visitors.

The two-day rally opened with a reception and dance at the Foresters' Hall last evening, the hall being attractively decorated for the occasion with roses and greenery. About 600 guests were in attendance, the reception committee comprising the worthy matrons of the entertaining chapters, the Queen City Chapter, Victoria, No. 17; Ruth Chapter, No. 22; Esquimalt Chapter, No. 41, and Oak Bay Chapter, No. 42.

The convention will close to-morrow evening with a banquet at the Hudson's Bay Company store and the installation of officers.

JUBILEE SERVICE AT FAIRFIELD CHURCH

Mr. Justice M. A. Macdonald to Speak at Confederation Service

The Fairfield Men's Service Club have made arrangements to hold a special Diamond Jubilee of Confederation service at the Fairfield United Church on Sunday evening next at 7.30.

The club, under the presidency of Dr. M. W. Thomas, have made arrangements for the service at which Hon. Mr. Justice M. A. Macdonald of the Appeal Court, will be the speaker. Special music will be rendered by an augmented choir of fifty voices.

DAUGHTERS OF FATHERS OF CONFEDERATION ARE STILL LIVING IN EAST

Kingston, Ont., June 21.—More than two daughters of Fathers of Confederation are alive, according to Miss Mowat, niece of Sir Oliver Mowat.

Daughters of both Sir Oliver Mowat and Sir Alexander Campbell are still living in Toronto. Sir Oliver's daughters are Mrs. Thomas Langlen and Miss Mowat, and Sir Alexander Campbell's daughter is Mrs. Wallace Jones. There is also one daughter of Hon. G. Brown living in Edinburgh, Scotland, a Mrs. Barbour. Miss Mowat is of the opinion that Hon. George Brown's second daughter, Mrs. Sanderman, is living, and also several daughters of Sir A. T. Galt.

WOMAN'S HOARD IS FOUND IN CANAL

First "Gold Rush" in England Rewards Seekers Liberally

Chester, Eng., June 21.—Discovery of 200 gold coins in the bed of a local canal has caused England's first native gold rush. The prospectors did not stake their claims, but rushed to the canal, which had been emptied temporarily for repairs.

The discovery was made by a boy who took the gold home to his mother, and she announced the news to her neighbors, who proceeded to the canal and carried out a thorough search.

Some of the searchers obtained as much as £20.

The mystery of the gold find is believed to be explained by the death of a woman who lived nearby. After her death an old mattress, which was partially burned, was thrown into the canal. Apparently the woman had hoarded gold in the mattress.

Beautiful Girls, Parisienne Singer, Flame Diver and All Latest Dances on Frolic Card

Miss Madeleine Woodman, Canada's most beautiful girl; Mme. Lamy of Paris, charming mezzo-soprano whose personality and delightful voice has won her applause on two sides of the Atlantic, flaming youth in a death-defying plunge in a ball of fire; six beautiful girls who will dance the blackbottom, the Charleston, the Lindbergh leap, the Galveston glide and the Soviet sidestep, and a programme of hilarious water sports are just a few of the many features on the Press Club frolic programme Wednesday night at the Crystal Garden.

The energetic committee arranging to-morrow night's party has lined up a host of attractions that will make the party a snappy one. While the dancers will be active on the floors at both ends of the Garden to the strains of music supplied by the Crystal Garden and Ozard's orchestras, a continuous programme of aquatic events will be run off in the mammoth Crystal pool. There will be action, zip and pep all the way through.

MISS CANADA IN POSES

Miss Madeleine Woodman, acclaimed as the fifth most beautiful girl in the world at the International Beauty Show at Galveston, Texas, will be greeted in her first public appearance since she brought honor to her home town. Miss Canada will be seen in a new and stunning bathing suit, and will appear in a number of poses.

Among many spectacular novelties to be performed in the Crystal Pool tomorrow night will be that of a daring diver in a thrilling leap from the high diving platform. Covered from toes to crown in a highly inflammable solution, he will take his stand on the highest diving point over the pool. The spotlight will play upon him for a few seconds while he makes his bow.

A PILLAR OF FLAME

Then the great building will me thrown into total darkness and suddenly the diver will appear as a pillar of flame. He will pose for three thrilling seconds and will then plunge from the platform to the water, which will be transformed by lighting effects to resemble a bed of fire. This is but one of many exciting events on a crowded water programme. There will be water rugby, a human fish will fight with expert anglers, tournaments and tugs-of-war and other exercises to entertain the patrons of the Press Club's gay festival.

YOUR BABY and MINE

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

THE DANGERS OF BABY'S TOYS

One wonders why manufacturers continue to make rattles and toys designed for small babies which contain swallowable adjuncts. The death of a baby only recently from strangulation following the swallowing of a small bell from a rattle brings this problem home the more acutely. It is natural for babies to put everything into their mouths. The mouth is the most vital portion of the body to the young baby for through it he gets the most prominent of his sensations, the comfort of his food. No one can change this. All one can alter is the danger which is attendant upon the things he gets in his small hands. Tiny babies are not able to go after things. Objects have to be put into their hands and no wise mother will ever give a small infant a toy which contains anything which can be gnawed or pulled off or which should not be swallowed.

Some babies have a peculiar craving for hair, fuzz, and string, which is slightly analagous to a craving for dirt. It arises perhaps in the case of string and hair and fuzz from having been able from infancy to put objects containing these things in the mouth. Naturally the baby who sucks his wooly carpet, though his mother may see a vast difference in the two things. If he has a string doll he will be as likely to put the kitchen dish mop in his mouth; or if his small pony has a flourishing tail and mane he can not be expected to differentiate between those and the knot of hair thrown into the waste basket by his mother. It is all in what one gets used to, says baby, and it is up to the mother to keep toys away from him which not only may endanger his life, as in the case of rattles with bells which can be pulled off, but may foster habits which later she will find extremely difficult to break.

Toys should always be of the simplest sort, with no dangles, or hair, button eyes, or wooly or stringy exterior. As a baby grows older he may find a place in his toy box for such complex contraptions but he will also by that time have ceased putting things in his mouth and they will no longer be a source of danger to him. Rubber and celluloid or ivory make the best materials for the infant's toys and these should be washed and boiled as often as necessary to keep them scrupulously clean, and should be tied to his carriage or bed so that they cannot possibly fall on the floor.

Sooke

Sooke, June 21 — Vincent Hardy of the Sooke Harbor Store met with a painful accident on Sunday afternoon. He was riding his motorcycle, and at the bend of the road between the store and wharf met a car. To avoid a more serious accident, with presence of mind he took the ditch. He sustained a broken finger, his head was badly cut and his ankle sprained. Dr. Calvert attended to his injuries.

SAANICH FARMS ARE KEY TO DEVELOPMENT DECLARES R. D. PINNEO

Extensive Marketing Plan and Adequate Storage Would Build Up Valuable Connection for Southern Vancouver Island Growers; Report Covers Many Lines of Industry

Fruit production on the Saanich Peninsula and in the territory adjacent to Victoria comes in for special mention in the report of Roger D. Pinneo, former industrial commissioner.

Adequate storage facilities and coordination of effort would lead to important increases in the yield and marketing of the small fruit and vegetable crops of Greater Victoria, Mr. Pinneo reports in this connection. The report continues, in part:

CANNERY PRODUCTS

"Along in November Mayor Pendray was approached by representatives of Saanich Fruit Growers' Association, The Gordon Head Growers' Association and Keating Co-operative Fruit Exchange with the idea of working out some plan, if possible, so all three organizations could work together for the good of all. We went to considerable trouble getting information from other co-operative associations, with the view of outlining some sort of an organization that would fit in with their ideas. Rev. Montague Bruce, president of the Saanich Board of Trade, was also quite active and desirous of bringing this matter about. We asked R. H. Kipp, manager, Marketing Department, Portland Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Oregon, to be here on a certain date when we would get all the fruit growers together and give them a good talk on co-operation, but unfortunately Mr. Kipp could not come on the date fixed, so we got all the information together we could, giving them an outline of how we thought matters could be handled and in a short time we were advised that two of the organizations had joined together and were willing to work hand in hand for the increasing of their produce, providing the City of Victoria would assist them in finding markets and distribution. The growers informed us that they were advised that the Beach Eakins Cannery which had been purchasing a lot of their surplus produce was going to move their plant to Vancouver consolidating with their Vancouver enterprise. It was then immediately decided to see if we could not organize another cannery here and the majority of this work fell upon Ald. Clearihue, of the Industrial Committee, to try and get all parties together, which after a long fight has been accomplished and I understand at this writing that with very little extra financing by the people of Victoria the cannery together with the jam factory will be operating and with the full co-operation of the fruit growers, they taking a financial interest in the enterprise. This is something that the citizens of Victoria should certainly take an interest in to see that they do not lack for finance or for produce to keep the cannery busy for it all means prosperity to the farmer, the laborer and the cannery man, and I feel certain that with all of these agencies working for its good that it will be a grand success.

GRAIN ELEVATOR

"One of the first major industries to get busy on, was the promotion of a grain elevator for Victoria. After looking over what had already been done and also reviewing correspondence had with the Panama Pacific people, it was evident that the proposition could not be put over and made a success as had been contemplated in the start, so a new proposition was worked out.

"There has been constant correspondence and the holdings of meetings by the different committees as well as the Panama Pacific people, with a view of trying to arrive at some contract that would be acceptable to the City Council and be recommended by them to the people for their support. The attorneys have done everything possible to protect the citizens, but up to the present time nothing definite has been decided with the Panama Pacific people as it would appear they are unable to comply with all the requirements requested by the City. There are, however, at this time, other people who appear to be willing to take on this development by putting up a large proportion of the capital to be invested, giving the City a chance to take care of the lesser proportion, which appears to be a good proposition to go ahead with.

MOVING PICTURE STUDIO

"Investigation was made relative to a moving picture studio in Victoria, and though the matter was dropped, I am still of the opinion that Victoria is a suitable place for a moving picture studio and that the citizens instead of being against such an industry locating here should be for it, as many other communities have benefited both financially and in a business way and especially in the advertising they got from outside by having such an industry located in their midst. There have been several other moving picture representatives in the city since that time, but none of them have been able to present a plan acceptable for recommendation of the different committees.

MAT INDUSTRY

"During the month of December, Mayor Pendray suggested to the Industrial Committee that if proper action was taken Victoria might be able to get a mat factory for making rubber mats out of reclaimed automobile tires, advising that a company in Seattle, The Durable Mat Company, Inc., had been operating for some time and owned the patent rights for Canada. After a thorough investigation and many conferences The Durable Mat Company of Canada was incorporated for $50,000, and a license secured from the American firm for the manufacture of mats in Canada and for selling them wherever they like except the United States and it is expected that within six weeks a plant will be in full operation in Victoria and there is no reason why it should not be a success from the start.

GLASS BOTTLE PLANT

"Some time ago it was suggested by Hon. F. A. Pauline, Agent General for British Columbia of London, England, that there was need of such a factory in British Columbia and that he thought Victoria would be a suitable place. Investigation has been going on for some time through this office and also by R. R. Nield who lives at 1542 Prospect Place, Oak Bay, but is now on his way to England and has taken all the statistics and information gathered with him and no doubt will make a report on his return. There was also a plant located at Anacortes, Washington, which operated for a short time, but their trouble seemed to be in building a plant too big for the trade. They started to build a smaller plant and work in the business gradually, but before really getting started, they were offered a large contract and had to increase the capacity of their premises and before getting started to fill the order the parties giving the order went broke and then the people did not have enough money to carry on the industry successfully, but they still claim there is a good opportunity for a plant located in this district and that as soon as they get the financial situation solved there is no question about it but the plant will be a success. There does not seem to be suitable raw material on the Island, but nearly all the plants in the west and south get their raw materials from Belgium, Ottawa, Illinois and Monterey, California, and the cost of same laid down from Ottawa, Illinois, which is presumed to be the best sand known for high-class products, is about $12.50 per ton laid down on the Pacific Coast. Sand from Belgium can be laid down in large quantities at from $4.00 to $6.00 per ton. It has also been reported that there is a silica quartz located in British Columbia which is almost 100 per cent pure. Deposits of this quartz occur on Douglas Channel, Banks Island, Dorothy Mine near Panny Bay, North Bend, Kamloops and Armstrong district. People familiar with these mines claim that the sand can be mined and delivered at about $9.00 per ton. Western Canada is dependent on a plant at Redcliffe, Alberta, for its supply of bottles used for beverages. General flint glass bottles are supplied from Montreal and Hamilton for fruit and milk bottles. This office has asked Col. D. B. Martin, Industrial Commissioner for British Columbia for information which should also be on file to be used in satisfying ourselves that a plant here would be a success, which information would be necessary in inducing capital or those interested in the manufacture of this commodity, to invest. I am of the opinion that a small factory could be started making bottles such as are needed in this territory, a survey being made as to the quantity and kind desired.

BOOT AND SHOE FACTORY

"This matter has been drawn to the attention of Alderman Holmes, chairman of the Industrial Committee by a letter received from Duncan, Monteath & Co. Limited of 80-85 Regent Street, London, W.I. Mr. Duncan advising under date April 27, 1927, that his people had been in touch with John Dean of Victoria, B.C., for a considerable length o ?time, relative to a factory of this kind. We have not made any investigation as to the practicability of such an industry locating here, but I understand that Mr. Dean has all this information and has made a thorough study of it for a number of years and recently made a trip through the States to decide in his own mind as to whether or not an industry of this kind could be made to pay in Victoria. On the investigation consideration will have to be given as to the possible markets, raw materials, competition, exporting possibilities, etc. It seems that Mr. Pauline, Agent-General for British Columbia in London, is also in touch with this proposition and that Mr. Smyth, of Duncan, Monteath & Co. Limited would be willing to accept an invitation from the City of Victoria with the view of going into the matter fully, relative to concessions and final arrangements. This is something that should be looked into immediately, co-operating with John Dean, who no doubt can give full information regarding it.

FLOUR MILL

"Investigation has been made relative to locating a flour mill here as soon as the grain elevator is arranged for, development could be handled on considerably less capital if the storage facilities are provided. It was suggested by the Industrial Committee that this development be figured along with the grain elevator proposition, if necessary making it an independent proposition. In our correspondence and talks with different flour mill people in the south, there seems to be a good chance to have such a mill located here and be able to get soft wheat for blending purposes from the soft wheat territory in the Western States and that bonding privileges could be arranged for the manufacture of it here in bond. There are a great many other features which are now being developed and there is no question in my mind but it is a feasible and practicable proposition and should be looked into very thoroughly by the Industrial Committee.

AT THE THEATRES

"BARBARA WORTH" IS FILM SPECTACLE AT DOMINION THEATRE

"The Winning of Barbara Worth," which opened at the Dominion Theatre for a week's run, should earn new laurels for Henry King, its director, and for Samuel Goldwyn, its producer.

The picture brings to the spotlight an entirely new and different Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky. Colman is magnificently unique, the matinee-idol atmosphere which surrounded some of his earlier productions is entirely absent, and it is easy to believe that he has no difficulty in proving himself a real man among men.

Miss Banky not only portrays Barbara Worth but she is Barbara Worth. But it is not the individual characters, so much as it is the picture as a whole, which marks "The Winning of Barbara Worth" as a truly epic production. It is a director's picture from start to finish. The feeling of the lonesomeness and the awesomeness of the desert are marvelously brought out both by the use of hundreds and hundreds of characters and by such simple and unpretentious little scenes as a rattlesnake crawling out of a skull, the bones of a dead horse, the "unseeing" look on an actor's face, or a crying baby.

The photography is good.

Where To Go To-night

Capitol—"The Telephone Girl."
Columbia—"Michael Strogoff."
Dominion—"The Winning of Barbara Worth."
Playhouse—"The Lone Wolf Returns."
Variety—"The End of the Road."
Coliseum—"Fun on the Briny."
Crystal Garden—Swimming and Dancing.

BILLIE DOVE IN PLAYHOUSE STORY HAS LOVELY ROLE

Billie Dove, who plays the role of Marcia Mayfair and shares starring honors with Bert Lytell in the Columbia production of "The Lone Wolf Returns," now playing at the Playhouse Theatre, has what in the actor's parlance is called "a fat part"—a big role, with every opportunity to show off her talent and beauty.

But interesting to hear from Miss Dove's press agent, regarding her work in this picture, is that she actually plays a second part in the picture, a role within a role, and though her work in the character only uses up a small part of the picture, Billie nevertheless got more fun out of it than all the rest of work throughout the story.

The bit referred to is a bal masque scene and in it Billie appears as Cleopatra.

FINAL WEEK AT COLISEUM FOR NIXON'S DANCERS

This is the final week of Nixon and his Black Bottom Girls at the Coliseum Theatre. "Fun on the Briny" is a real nautical musical comedy which made a decided hit last night.

What should a girl do when, after traveling several thousand miles to visit her grandfather, she finds that he has always considered her to be a boy and that the visit of a granddaughter at that particular time would be little short of a disaster?

That is the problem that confronts Bebe Daniels in her latest Paramount comedy-drama, "Senorita," which opened at the Coliseum Theatre last night.

Miss Daniels solves the problem in characteristic fashion. She becomes a boy for the time being and, hiding behind flourishing black mustachios and the costume of a dashing caballero she appears to the grandfather she has never seen, not as the Senorita Francesca Hernandez, but as Senor Francisco.

"MICHAEL STROGOFF" POWERFUL STORY AT COLUMBIA NOW

Something in the nature of a sensation was revealed on the screen of the Columbia Theatre last night at the opening performance of Jules Verne's famous melodrama, "Michael Strogoff," long popular as a book and as a play, and now filmed for the first time and presented by Carl Laemmle as a Universal-Film de France production. A handsome and personable young Russian actor, Ivan Moskine, said to be "Europe's idol of the screen," heads a brilliant group of principals, supported by a cast said to number 6,000. The performance of the star as the intrepid hero, a "secret courier of the Czar," was a splendid realization of Verne's famous character, and left nothing to be desired.

The story concerns itself with the adventures of Shrogoff on a 5,000 mile journey from Moscow to Irkutsk in Siberia, with a message from the Czar to his brother, the Grand Duke, in command of the Russian troops, who is threatened by an uprising of the semi-barbaric Tartars under Feofar, the Grand Kahn.

CLAIRE ADAMS IS CANADIAN STARRED IN VARIETY FILM

It would be a great mortification to the average girl if she felt that the man of her choice looked upon her as "shop worn," and yet there is many a girl to-day, who by cheapening her affections, and being too ready to bestow tokens of them, is in all innocence laying up unhappiness for herself and others when she embarks upon life's greatest adventure of all. The problem is forcefully and ably dealt with in "The End of the Road," a remarkable photoplay showing at the Variety this week.

Every once in a while there comes a picture that is not only a powerful dramatic attraction, replete with action, but which sends the audience away in a very thoughtful mood. Just such a production is "The End of the Road," featuring Claire Adams, a beautiful Canadian girl, with Richard Bennett, a polished and popular character actor.

The subject is dealt with in a very frank manner, and yet there is nothing morbid in the story, for it brings home the fact that a wholesome life is the best.

"THE TELEPHONE GIRL" IS CAPITOL VEHICLE FOR MADGE BELLAMY

If you've ever wanted to wring the neck of the lady who gives you wrong numbers, or if you've ever felt a desire to punch the individual who rings off in the middle of interesting conversations, a visit to the Capitol Theatre is recommended "The Telephone Girl," as portrayed by Madge Bellamy in Paramount's latest Herbert Brenon production, proves to be a winsome little miss who is more to be praised than impaled. In addition to this, she's quite brave and refuses to give a number—although it's in the interest of the plot that this is done.

And talking of plot, "The Telephone Girl" has lots of it. Remember William C. De Mille's play, "The Woman?" Elizabeth Meehan based her scenario on Mr. De Mille's thriller. It seems that some years before the picture opens there had been an Atlantic City excursion in which two persons had met and separated. Then we switch to election eve and a dinner being given to Matthew Standish, the man who will seemingly become Governor. His opponent, Governor Mark Robinson, has discovered the forgotten incident and is endeavoring to use it. The owner of the party's newspaper promises to print the story only if the woman's name can be found.

In addition to the picture attractions at the Capitol Theatre this week, there are some attractive vaudeville features, they introduce The Harrison Twins, in a song, dance and instrumental novelty presentation, the Dancing Brownie, and Max, the famous singing newsboy. The Capitol orchestra under the leadership of Al. Prescott, is also being featured, with a special musical synchronization for the picture attractions.

BITUMINOUS SAND FOR ROAD PAVING

Asphaltic Deposit in Vicinity of Fort McMurray

Tests Most Satisfactory at Edmonton and Jasper

An extensive deposit of bituminous or asphaltic sand occurs in the vicinity of Fort McMurray, in the northern part of the province of Alberta, Canada. From time to time, during recent years, references to this deposit have appeared in official publications issued by the mines branch, Department of Mines, Ottawa.

Commercial production from this deposit has not so far been undertaken. Until quite recently the absence of adequate rail transportation and financial conditions which have prevailed in Western Canada during the years immediately following the war have militated against such development. It now appears, however, that commercial development may be anticipated in the near future. The use of the bituminous sand for road-making purposes has meanwhile been under consideration by the mines branch as well as by the research council of Alberta. In 1915 the first street surfaces, including bitulithic, bituminous concrete and sheet asphalt mixtures, were laid in Edmonton, Alberta, with entirely satisfactory results. In 1926 the bituminous sand was used for the first time on a commercial scale in the surfacing of highways. This work was initiated by the parks branch, Department of the Interior, and was carried out in co-operation with the mines branch, Department of Mines. The latter organization mined and shipped the bituminous sand and undertook all work in connection with the preparation of the wearing surface mixtures. The two and one-half mile section of highway to be surfaced extends from the town of Jasper, Alberta, to Jasper Lodge, a Summer tourist hotel operated by the Canadian National Railway system. Traffic during the Summer months may be described as fairly heavy. During 1926 it was equivalent to upwards of 500 motor cars per day, in addition to a fleet of two-ton motor trucks operated by the parks branch. During the last three years the road has been repeatedly resurfaced and graveled, and is now equivalent to a fairly well compacted macadam.

In the United States bituminous sand and other rock asphalts have been successfully used for road surfacing for many years. For the manipulation of these materials, two general types of mixers have been developed, viz., those which are internally heated and those which are externally heated. For the work at Jasper an internally heated plant was designed and constructed at a cost of about $2,000, and the operation of this unit was entirely satisfactory. The plant consists essentially of two mixing drums six feet in diameter, and an oil fired two compartment combustion chamber. Bituminous sand and clean aggregate fed from an overhead platform are heated by the blast from the combustion chamber. First cost of plants of this type is low, and heating and mixing costs apparently not higher than those which prevail with the standard mixing equipment now used in Western Canada. A report describing in some detail construction and operation of the Jasper plant will be issued shortly by the mines branch.

Owing to various unavoidable delays, paving work was not commenced at Jasper until October, 1926. This, together with unseasonable weather, prevented completion of the paving programme. It is expected that the surfacing will be completed during the season of 1927. Work referred to above was carried out by S. C. Ells, who has been in charge of the bituminous sand investigation since 1913.

MAGNESIA BEST FOR YOUR INDIGESTION

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestants

Most people, who suffer, either occasionaly or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead, following the advice so often given in these columns, take a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bisurated Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomach no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Bisurated Magnesia never dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralise the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation, and make digestion easy. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get Bisurated Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use. (Advt.)

No Longer Gray!

Fear of crude dyes no longer excuses gray hair. You don't have to use them. Kolor-Bak is a clean, colorless liquid that cannot harm the hair; and it does bring back the color. Not the weird hues women used to get from old-fashioned hair-dyes, but the color your hair ought to be—the color it used to be.

Kolor-Bak acts gently; the change is gradual. That's why your closest friend can't detect it. Hair is left lustrous; only the gray is gone. Blonde, auburn, brown, black—any shade responds to this natural process. The one bottle is right for all.

Why experiment with anything, even on one lock of hair, when Kolor-Bak always gets the same perfect result—on a money-back guarantee!

NEWS IN BRIEF

Rev. Dr. Price, the evangelist, will speak at the Metropolitan Church on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A special meeting has been called for Thursday, June 23, at 8 p.m., in the Sons of Canada Hall, to make final arrangements for building a float and consideration of other matters pertaining to the July 1 celebration.

W. B. Young was this morning charged in the city police court with selling a motion picture instrument to R. Calladine without first having it properly approved and stamped by the fire marshal. His plea was reserved and the case remanded.

An appeal by Lee Chong against his conviction before Magistrate Jay July 9 on a charge of having liquor at the Wan Que restaurant, 542½ Fisgard Street, on June 28, will be heard by His Honor Judge Lampman to-day. R. C. Lowe appears for appellant.

Riders wishing to take part in the mounted section of the Diamond Jubilee parade are asked to apply to Secretary Morris of the sub-committee in charge of the section, who will be at the Horse Show Buildings, Willows, between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday.

The Women's Canadian Club will hold their annual garden party tomorrow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, Tod Inlet, from 3 until 6 o'clock. The pupils of Miss Michaelis will dance and Zaia's orchestra will dispense a musical programme. Afternoon tea and ice cream will be available.

Nominations for the appreciation medal to be given by Victoria Posts of the Native Sons and Daughters of British Columbia for good citizenship must reach Room 10, McGregor Block, on or before Friday, June 24. A gold medallion will be presented to the person who for services is named the best citizen of Victoria. The medal is on view at Wenger's Jewelry Store.

DISAGREEMENT ON OPERATION OF MILL

Affairs of Tyee Lumber Company Subject of Court Action

Affairs of the Tyee Lumber Company on which brothers and sisters of the Hastings family disagreed are being aired in a case proceeding before Mr. Justice Morrison in the Supreme Court.

It is a consolidated action with Harry Hastings, on behalf of himself and all other debenture holders of the Tyee Lumber Company named a plaintiff in the first part and the Tyee Lumber Company and Charles Ernest Hastings and Robert John Hastings, defendants.

Harry Walter Arthur is plaintiff and Charles Ernest Hastings, Bertha Wadeson Hastings and Dorothy Ethel Hastings are defendants in the other issue.

Plaintiff claims on behalf of himself and other debenture holders a declaration that they were entitled to a charge upon the undertaking and all of the property in the company and on account of what was due to them.

They also ask endorsation of the appointment of H. W. Arthur as receiver and manager of the company and a declaration that Charles E. Hastings and Robert John Hastings are trustees for the company of the land and premises subject to a mortgage upon them.

CAPITAL OF $40,000

The Tyee Lumber Company was incorporated [illegible] 1920, with a capital of $40,000 divided into 400 shares of $100 each, to take over the saw mill at Tyee Siding, Vancouver Island, as a going concern. Machinery, logging equipment, timber agreements and leases and all other adjuncts of the saw mill were included.

It was claimed on April 8, 1924, directors of the company resolved to issue at par a series of debentures for $30,000 to consist of ten debentures of $1,000 each, thirty debentures of $500 each, fifty debentures of $100 each, bearing interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum.

It was charged that the company failed to pay interest due on the debentures, to pay personal property tax, municipal taxes, Workmen's Compensation Board charges, the balance of the purchase price of land to the E. & N. Railway; to keep the machinery and logging equipment in repair, to provide a sinking fund, and to pay wages due to workmen.

It was claimed the company had imperilled the security of debenture holders by incurring liabilities and indebtedness to the extent of $42,355.38, and by operating the mill and plant of the company during 1925 at a great loss.

It was charged that the security of the debenture holders had also been imperilled by Charles E. Hastings, while a director of the company, obtaining a conveyance from James Alexander to himself, of lands leased, not mentioning that he was a trustee for the company and the lands.

On April 20, 1926, Harry Walter Arthur was appointed receiver by Harry Hastings and other debenture stockholders and was now carrying on business. On April 23, it was alleged that Charles E. Hastings, Bertha Wadeson Hastings and Dorothy Ethel Hastings interfered with the receiver and excluded him from access to the company's mill and office.

W. C. Moresby appears for plaintiffs, and H. I. Bird and W. W. Lefeaux appears for defendants.

SAYS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AS VIRILE AS BEFORE CLEAVAGE

Rev. Dr. Clay, Moderator, Gives Retrospect of Recent General Assembly

"The whole deliberation of the Assembly left one with an amazing impression of how little damage after all the Presbyterian Church in Canada suffered by the disruption of 1925. When one recalls the predictions of almost complete extinction which have filled the air for a decade past and the fears that filled many hearts, one is amazed to find that the church has so soon and so fully recovered its old-time virility and optimism. Not that one would belittle the grievous losses the Presbyterian Church has sustained—losses that in some respects time will never make good—yet in all essential features the church retains its historic and distinctive characteristics and is doing business as usual."

This retrospective summing-up of the recent meeting of the general assembly was made to The Times this morning by Rev. W. L. Clay, D.D., new moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, who returned yesterday afternoon from Stratford, Ontario, where the meeting was held.

MISSION DEVELOPMENT

In the judgment of men who have attended the assembly for many years, the missionary nights exceeded in power and interest any in their memory. The home mission problem of the church is enormous, according to Dr. Clay. "No church of equal membership with ours has such a tremendous home mission field at its doors. Our policy is not to break down or weaken efforts of the other churches, but wherever a group of Presbyterians invites the services of the Presbytedian Church that invitation will be met as far as possible."

In order to relieve the general secretary from certain office duties, Rev. W. A. Cameron, of the outstanding synodical missionaries of Saskatchewan, has been transferred from that work to the head office.

"A delegation sent to look over conditions in the South American field, gave its report at the General Assembly. To show the importance attaches to the foreign mission field, five new missionaries are ready to sail to posts abroad, three of them being present at the assembly. Four others had already gone abroad this year, and one who returned from India for good has decided to return again in the Fall. Thus it is evident that the historic attitude of the church towards missions is being sustained," observed Dr. Clay.

FINANCIAL STANDING

While submitting an optimistic report of the finances, the assembly treasurer, E. W. McNeill of Toronto, pointed out that at the present moment there was an adverse balance. This, he explained, as due to the fact that since 1925 the United Church had assumed that the Presbyterian Church with all its enterprises entered the union, and had accordingly paid all salaries and other expenses since that period. The Presbyterian Church is naturally required to reimburse the United Church for the amounts paid by them in the interval in respect of enterprises that the Dominion Commission decided shall remain Presbyterian. In order to do this it has been necessary to borrow a considerable sum, hence the adverse balance, which the treasurer was emphatic in declaring should not be regarded as a deficit. Contributions from the various congregations will meet this balance before the end of the year."

The treasurer further deprecated the idea of launching a great drive for funds. His advice was to let the church know what was being done, to see the magnitude of the programme that will arouse the loyalty, enthusiasm and devotion of the membership and insure a sufficient income for all emergencies, according to the moderator.

With 626 ministers on the roll and 1,248 congregations to be served, it is evident that a large accession to the ministry is necessary to meet the present emergency, continued Dr. Clay.

CALL OF MINISTRY

"To meet this situation the assembly two years ago appointed a commission having assembly powers to receive duly-qualified ministers of other churches adhering to our standards. A number of men have thus far been received, but not more than half the number who made application. While grateful for the men who have come from other churches, the assembly was clear that the only hope of developing a strong Canadian church is a Canadian ministry from our own homes, our own colleges and our own churches. So we appeal strongly to the youth of the church seriously to consider the claims of the Christian ministry when thinking of their chosen career."

Apart from those taking the preparatory steps to the ministry, thirty-seven young men are now pursuing their theological studies at the Toronto and Montreal colleges.

SCOTTISH TEAM KIWANIS GUESTS

Kiwanians Are Hosts to Scottish Football Experts

The Scottish football team were the luncheon guests of the Kiwanis Club to-day at the weekly meeting at the Chamber of Commerce, B. C. Nicholas expressing the pleasure of the members at having the opportunity of meeting the players.

The speaker pointed out that visits of Old Country teams are extremely popular in Canada and have been an important factor in improving the methods of local players.

Mr. Nicholas recalled the importance of the services rendered British Columbia, in her early days, by men of Scottish origin. He closed with a hearty welcome on behalf of the Kiwanians.

Replying for the team, Treasurer W. McIntosh introduced the players individually, each being greeted with applause.

The visitors sang with enthusiasm "Come to Victoria," at the instance of Mr. McIntosh, led by D. Macfarlane.

Sergt.-Major W. H. Ruffell, baritone, sang "Mandalay" and "The French Hussar" to great applause. The Kiwanis orchestra played during the luncheon under the leadership of Cecil Heaton.

Scottish Footballers Will be Guests of L.I.F.A. To-night

Members and officials of the visiting Scottish football team will be the guests of honor at a banquet to be given by the Lower Island Football Association at the Dominion Hotel to-night at 6.30 o'clock.

Following the banquet the players will be the guests of Clifford Denham at the Capitol Theatre.

COUGAR STALKS IN BEACON HILL PARK

Seen by Housewife at Beacon Hill This Morning; Eludes Police Gunmen

The tawny cougar which has been seen by several persons wandering about the environs of Victoria during the last few days, finally found his way into the city and this morning Fairfield district was agog with the news that the mountain cat had made a temporary lair in Beacon Hill park. As early as 7.40 o'clock this morning Mrs. G. Gates, whose residence is near the western boundary of Beacon Hill park, saw the cougar ambling leisurely along the edge of the football field. She watched it until it turned and disappeared into the broom bushes towards the top of the hill and then telephoned to police headquarters.

Armed with rifles, Constable Duncan McPherson and Patrolman Ben Acreman drove to the spot where the animal was seen and tracked it through the broom. They caught no sight of the animal.

Plunges to Save Drowning Friend

A drowning accident was narrowly averted Saturday afternoon near the Johnson Street bridge, by the pluck of a thirteen-year-old lad, Hugh Kelly, of 143 Niagara Street.

Kelly plunged fully dressed into the water to save William White, twelve, of 42 Montreal Street, who had fallen from a launch. White could not swim. Kelly supported him until they reached the side of the launch and were helped aboard.

Kelly had a year's swimming instruction at the Victoria Y.M.C.A., and was an admirable swimmer. He undoubtedly saved White's life, according to those who saw the incident.

OBITUARY

The funeral of Henry Einert, who died last Monday at his residence, 1924 Store Street, took place yesterday afternoon. Service was at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1625 Quadra Street, Rev. Dr. Clem Davies, pastor of the City Temple, conducted the service. L. Kissinger, A. R. Davidson, Donald MacKay and A. C. Warder acted as pallbearers. Interment was in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

The funeral of Victor J. L. Basso, accidently drowned on Sunday afternoon at Pike Lake, will be held tomorrow afternoon from Sands Funeral, at 2.30 o'clock. Rev. J. P. Westman will officiate. The remains will be laid to rest at the family plot at Ross Bay.

MEDALIST BEATEN AT OAK BAY TO-DAY

Charlie Wilson Defeated H. Duker, Vancouver, in Class "B" Tourney, 6 and 5

Charlie Wilson of the Victoria Golf Club, provided the surprise at Oak Bay this morning in the first round of the P.N.G.A. class "B" men's championship, when he defeated Harry Duker of Vancouver, medalist yesterday, 6 and 5 in their eighteen-hole match.

Duker was considered to be one of the strongest contenders for the title and, with his defeat, Vancouver loses one of her strongest entries.

This morning's scores were as follows:

C. E. Wilson defeated Harry Duker 6 and 5.

G. D. Luther defeated H. S. Thorne 5 and 4.

A. O. Falk defeated V. A. Johnson 7 and 6.

H. B. Williams defeated Lester Patrick 5 and 4.

C. Wakefield defeated C. W. Reid 3 and 2.

G. Butterfield defeated L. C. Boyd 2 and 1.

H. P. Buehner defeated T. L. Sawn 3 and 1.

Dr. Scott-Moncrieff beat C. S. Whiting 2 up.

W. W. Hall beat J. de Suzannet 6 and 5.

T. O. Mackay beat J. L. Burns 4 and 2.

Dr. J. D. Hunter beat Harold Duden 2 up.

J. H. Richardson beat R. E. Loomis 2 and 1.

G. P. Powell beat E. W. Ismay 3 and 2.

WITNESSES RELATE PIKE LAKE TRAGEDY

Boys Who Tried to Save Victor Basso Tell Story of Hopeless Struggle

Before a coroner's jury this morning, two youths recounted the story of the death of their friend Victor J. L. Basso, with whom they were swimming on Sunday afternoon when the unfortunate young man lost his life. They were James Crowe and Edward Viggers, both of whom attempted to save their friend, although neither was a strong swimmer.

Crowe told how he and two friends had gone for a bathe in Pike Lake, accompanied by Basso, and how, when the latter was about to the middle of the body of water he suddenly called for help. He was nearest to him at the time and lent aid, he said. Viggers hurried to the spot and extended himself to assist the youth.

Finally, exhausted by their efforts he and Viggers were forced to admit their defeat and their friend slipped from their grasp and sank. They floundered ashore, witness said.

Viggers's evidence was corroborative.

Although Constable Jicklin and other B.C. Provincial Police officers dragged for the body, they had no success, C. Baugh-Allen, another witness, stated. Percy Dumbleton and himself, however, who knew the lake, sank a hook and on their second attempt caught the body. At 10 o'clock that night it was recovered.

There were no questions from the members of the jury. The case was clearly one of misadventure, they found, and brought in a verdict of accidental death.

Coroner Dr. E. C. Hart heard the evidence.

FUNERAL TO-DAY OF LATE F. ELWORTHY

Past Presidents of Board of Trade Pallbearers This Afternoon

A big delegation from the Chamber of Commerce attended the services held this afternoon over the remains of Frederick Elworthy, for over thirty years secretary of the Victoria Board of Trade and treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce, while the presence of many old friends and many beautiful floral tributes were eloquent testimony to the regret occasioned by his passing.

Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick conducted the impressive service, and the only hymn sung was "Lead, Kindly Light." The pallbearers, all past presidents of the Board of Trade were: J. L. Beckwith, J. O. Cameron, A. C. Flumerfelt, S. J. Pitts and J. W. Spencer. In the unavoidable absence of H. O. Wilson, A. J. Wollaston acted as a pallbearer. The remains were laid at rest in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

It was on the basis of such conceptions of this part of Canada that B.C. had to bargain, Mr. Manson asserted.

"But now conditions have proved such conceptions were wrong," Mr. Manson went on. "B.C. has proved to be one of the richest parts of Canada. Why, her agricultural production has doubled itself in the last ten years. And at that early time it was thought that B.C. was no good for agriculture of any kind! Besides, now there are the vast mineral, fishing and lumbering industries.

"Altogether Saskatchewan alone of the provinces of Canada has surpassed us in increase of production.

"We now ask that the treaty that was made on the early misconceptions be reopened and remove the injustice that has been done to this Province."

Hon. S. F. Tolmie, M.P., official Provincial Conservative leader, and H. Despard Twigg were present.

Dr. Tolmie greeted Mr. Cannon when he entered the room and introduced Mr. Twigg.

J. B. Clearihue, who appeared as the official recorder, read the commission given by Ottawa and signed by the Governor-General.

Mr. Justice Martin explained that he construed the terms of his commission to include not only lands in the railway belt but those in the Peace River block as well. He said he thought it was all largely a matter of record, statute and agreement, but he desired to give the widest possible scope in the inquiry. He said that the onus was on the Province to prove its case.

Hon. A. M. Manson, Attorney-General, notified the commission that he, assisted by C. W. Craig, appeared for the Province of British Columbia.

Hon. Lucien Cannon, Solicitor-General of Canada, explained that he, assisted by A. B. Macdonald, appeared for the Dominion.

"Your Lordship, I appear for Dr. Tolmie," said Mr. Twigg, rising and stepping towards the counsel table.

NO PARTIES RECOGNIZED

"Now, I am not going to recognize any parties in this," said Mr. Justice Martin.

He declared that if Mr. Twigg desired to make any representations, he could do it through the recognized channels.

"As far as I'm concerned I don't know any party in this investigation," the commissioner went on.

Attorney-General Manson declared that under the British system procedure in such things as this was well defined.

"We have constituted channels through which the people of our units must express themselves," Mr. Manson went on. "For the time being, I have the honor to represent this Province before Your Lordship. Any assistance that is tendered us, we would be glad to avail ourselves of it."

ABSENCE OF PREMIER

"I desire to express the regret of the people of the Province, without regard to locality or quality, at the absence from this inquiry of Premier Oliver, who has devoted so many years to the larger problems of the people of this Province," Mr. Manson went on. "He has deeply interested himself in the relations and the problems between the Dominion and the Province, and in this he raised the question of the return of these railway lands. Had he been able to be present here, I am sure his very fine analytical mind would be of assistance to your lordship in arriving at a true conclusion."

Mr. Manson then turned to the presentation of the British Columbia case.

"The issue is not the loose and undefined one of Better Terms, but is confined to the single issue of the return of our railway lands," Mr. Manson went on.

A few minutes later, as Mr. Manson was proceeding, Mr. Twigg picked up his brief bag and accompanied by Dr. Tolmie, walked out of the room.

Mr. Justice Martin asked whether there were any records of what transpired between the negotiators at Ottawa on behalf of the Province?

The Attorney-General replied that the records were only piece-meal, made up of messages that passed back and forth and newspaper and other reports that would all have to be put together.

NATURE OF A TREATY

The whole bargain between British Columbia and the Dominion was in the nature of a treaty and should dominate the approach to this question, Mr. Manson went on.

Mr. Manson continued to go into the details of the causes that led to the need for British Columbia joining Confederation, pointing out that from every standpoint, economic and strategic, it was desirable that British Columbia should be brought into the Dominion. British Columbia was isolated and it could only hope for progress through breaking down that isolation.

"Thus the major term of union, as far as this Province was concerned, was transportation," Mr. Manson continued. "The essential term of union was the construction of this railway."

Mr. Manson pointed out that at the time the agreement was made British Columbia was looked upon unfavorably as a sea of mountains, and even the prairies were referred to by members of the House of Commons as "barren wastes."

What Commission Covers

The Royal Commission, under Mr. Justice W. M. Martin, of the Court of Appeal, Saskatchewan, which opened at the Parliament Buildings to-day to investigate British Columbia's claims for the return to the Province of Dominion railway lands and of the Peace River block, took its rise from the Better Terms move made by Premier Oliver and embodied in the following clauses of the resolution he presented to the B.C. Legislature at its last session:

"Whereas, in accordance with paragraph 11 of the Terms of Union and under the authority of subsequent legislation, the Province of British Columbia did convey to the Dominion of Canada (in trust, to be appropriated in aid of the construction of the railway mentioned in the said paragraph 11) approximately fourteen and one-half million acres of the public lands of the Province of British Columbia:

"And whereas the said paragraph 11 of the Terms of Union was negotiated and agreed to; and the subsequent legislation hereinbefore referred to was enacted so as to be in accord with and in sequence of the avowed policy of the Government of Canada, which avowed policy was to secure the construction of the railway mentioned in paragraph 11 at the cost of the public lands of Canada, and of such Provincial public lands as were made available for that purpose:

"And whereas, in pursuance of the policy hereinbefore mentioned, the Government and Parliament of Canada did by resolution appropriate one hundred million acres of public lands in aid of the construction of the said railway:

"And whereas the avowed policy of the Government of Canada (which policy was the basis upon which approximately fourteen and one-half million acres of the public lands of British Columbia were conveyed to the Dominion of Canada) was subsequently abandoned in whole or in part, with the result that British Columbia has not received the equitable consideration to which she has been justly entitled:

"And whereas British Columbia has contributed her full quota of land in aid of the construction of the railway mentioned in the Terms of Union as if the whole cost of the said railway had been met from public lands and no portion thereof had been met by moneys from the public treasury of Canada:

"And whereas approximately $73,000,000, public moneys of the people of Canada, has been expended in aid of the construction of the railway mentioned in the Terms of Union:

"And whereas one result which has accrued is that the Province of British Columbia, having paid in full by way of land grants, has been compelled to pay a second time as contributing to the payment of the $73,000,000 hereinbefore mentioned:

"And whereas a further result which has followed the completion of the construction of the railway mentioned in the Terms of Union has been that the people of the Province of British Columbia have, ever since the completion of the railway, been compelled to pay for services of the railway, rates greatly in excess of those chargeable by the said railway or by any other railway in any other part of Canada, thus in effect compelling the people of British Columbia to pay a third time for the construction of the said railway:

"And whereas no other Province of Canada was required to or did contribute any public lands in aid of the said railway:

"And whereas had British Columbia not been required and, in fact, had not contributed any lands in aid of the construction of the railway hereinbefore referred to, she would still have had no advantages over the other provinces of Canada in respect thereto:

And whereas the lands conveyed by British Columbia in trust to the Dominion of Canada have not been appropriated by Canada for the purposes for which they were conveyed, nor in accord with the said trust:

"And whereas the Government of the Province, moved by the reasons (among others) hereinbefore recited, has, by a Minute of Council approved by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor on February 17 last, requested the Government of the Dominion of Canada to take such steps as were necessary to reconvey to the Province of British Columbia the lands purporting to have been conveyed to the Dominion in sequence of the Terms of Union."

CRICKETERS SINGING JUST BEFORE CRASH

Tallyho Driver Denies Any Shown Anxiety on Malahat Drive

Denying that he was ever requested to check his speed on the return journey from Duncan with Five C's cricketers Saturday, July 17, R. Hibberd, driver of the tallyho was on the stand in the County Court this morning in the action in which Fred Bossom, one of those injured when the car ran off the road, is suing for $1,000.

Hibberd denied that any member of the party ever said a word to him about speeding or that he said he would check his speed. He also denied that he said he wanted to get over the road before dark.

Cross-examined by R. H. Pooley on P. C. Payne's opinion that the driver changed his gears too late, witness said he changed his gears from second to low as he started to go down the hill at the foot of which the car crashed into a fence. He admitted Payne or others in the party could have seen him change gears.

"I don't think they would take any notice though," he added. "They were singing all the way down."

Mr. Pooley: "A happy party?" Witness: "Yes."

Witness admitted that his gears stuck once on the way up, but said his brakes were all right. He denied telling anyone the car was going fifty or sixty miles an hour when it struck. He was in low gear, and part of the way down the hill when the gears came out. He put the brakes on. The car gained speed as it went down the hill, although the brakes helped to check it.

He had never been caught or even checked for speeding before the accident, he said.

Judgment was reserved.

Pirates Maintain Narrow Lead By Victory Over Cubs

Downed Challengers 4-0 in Only Major League Ball Game Played Yesterday

Giants Looking Forward to Games at Home; Cubs Open Series With Cardinals

New York, June 21.—Splitting even on their two-game series, the league-leading Pirates and Cubs turned their batting barrages upon slightly less formidable foes to-day.

When the Pirates downed their challengers, the Cubs, by four to nothing yesterday, they not only retained their narrow margin of leadership in the league, but also held the lead in the private duel between the two clubs.

Of twelve games they have played, the Pirates have won 7 and the Cubs 5.

RAIN HALTS GAMES

Rain drowned out the only other two games scheduled, both in the American League.

Road trips ending, the Giants looked forward to a fat few weeks with the eastern teams, after meeting many hard knocks in the West.

Meanwhile their rivals in the first division—Pirates, Cubs and Cardinals—will be fighting it out largely between themselves. The Cubs open a series with the Cardinals with a double-header, while the Buccaneers meet easier opposition in the Reds.

Oarsmen Hope To Smash Record By Use of New Shells

Shells of Western Red Cedar to be Used in Annual Varsity Race on Hudson

Poughkeepsie, N.Y., June 21—Lighter shells in use this year should enable oarsmen to set a new record in the four-mile varsity race on the Hudson here June 29, believes Rusty Callow, head rowing coach of the University of Washington, titleholders.

Shells of Western red cedar, now in use by Washington, California, Navy and Pennsylvania, are the fastest boats ever used in the race, Callow said. The native red cedar was substituted for a Spanish variety this year by George Pocock, boat builder. Pacific Coast Indians used the wood in construction of their war canoes, some of which still exist.

The shell to be used by Washington in defence of the title is called the Totem and weighs only 270 pounds, as against the 1,500 pounds aggregate weight of the nine-men it will carry.

Morgan-Snell Go Promises To Be a Real Good Battle

Former is Making His First Appearance in Home Town Since Copping Championship

Seattle, June 21 — With indications pointing to the largest assemblage of fans that ever gathered for a boxing show in the Northwest, Tod Morgan, junior lightweight champion of the world, making his first hometown appearance since he won the title more than two years ago, and Doc Snell, his aggressive and confident opponent, are preparing for a battle-royal in the feature bout of Nate Druxman's outdoor ring show at the Seattle baseball park, Tuesday evening, June 28.

A REAL FIGHT

Morgan's remarkable science and speed, pitted against Snell's shifty aggressiveness and apparently unlimited stamina, together with popular prices prevailing and indications of good weather conditions, make it one of the choicest bits of fistic entertainment ever offered in the West.

Augmented by a heavy demand from all points in the Northwest, the sale of tickets, which were placed on sale Friday evening, is by far the largest in local boxing history.

A RUBBER

The battle, which is their third, is in the nature of a "rubber." The first bout was called a draw, although a majority of spectators thought Snell was entitled to the decision. Morgan won the second.

SOFTBALL

Results of the games played last night by the softball teams were as follows:

Poodle Dog Cafe Cup for "A" and "B" Sections—Onwegos, 16; Andreans, 10.

Peden Bros. Cup "C" and "D" Sections—Five C's, 9; Albion Stove Works, 8. Cameron Woodmen, 11; Colonist, 9.

To-night's games are as follows:

Hillcrest vs. Bryant's Bluebirds, at Work Point Barracks; umpire, Wallace.

Tillicums vs. Cameron Lumber Company, at Central Park, upper diamond.

Lemon, Gonnason vs. Y.M.C.A., at Central Park, lower diamond.

Frank Dolp of Portland, present Western amateur champion, won the qualifying round of the P.N.G.A. amateur championship at Colwood yesterday. His score for the thirty-six holes was 149, one less than Donald Moe, of the same city, and two better than the latter's brother Roy. Bon Stein took third place honors. Bon led at lunch-time with a fine 73, but let up a little in the afternoon, to finish with a 79. Dr. O. F. Willing had 153 for the two rounds, while Russ Smith totalled 154 with Dick Moore and Rudy Wilhelm just behind with 155.

PORTLAND'S DAY

It was indeed Portland's day as, besides furnishing four out of the first five men on the list the Rose City claimed the first two teams in the Davis cup competition. In this the Alderwood quartette, consisting of the Moe brothers and Frank and Vin Wolf, nosed out their Waverley rivals by the slim margin of two strokes, with the rest of the field nowhere. Eleven teams were entered, including three local fours.

WEATHER IDEAL

The weather was again ideal for low scoring, and some fine rounds were handed in by the favorites, although the majority of the field found the long course too much for them. With the present back tees Colwood is a wonderful example of a championship course, ideal for the expert but pretty stiff for anyone else.

The last score to qualify was 170, and there was a four-cornered play-off by those who turned in this figure to determine the last place in the championship flight. N. T. Fell, a local man, won by shooting a birdie on the second extra hole.

Dolp played beautiful golf throughout the day. After registering a 75 in the morning he went out after lunch in 35 and eased up on the second nine for a 39, making a total of 74. Although as a rule the medalist of a tournament seldom wins it, Dolp will take a lot of stopping at the rate he is going now.

IN LIMELIGHT

The brothers Moe, Don and Roy, were both very much in the limelight. Roy had a nice 74 in the morning, being level with par until the fifteenth, but had trouble with his game in the second lap, when he hung up a 79. Don had a 78 before lunch, but came back strong with 36-36-72 in the afternoon. His first round included a spectacular eagle 2 on the thirteenth, where he sank his iron shot.

Dr. Willing was not at his best before lunch, but finished well with a nice 73. The doctor was hitting the ball straight and far on this round, coming home in 35, although taking a 5 on the home hole.

Dick Moore was the best local man by six strokes. He shot a steady 77 on his first trip around and then slumped on the outward nine of his second round to take a 44. However, he made up for this coming back, doing the nine holes in 34, one under par, and the best score for the nine that has been recorded during the tournament. His card for the nine was:

4 4 3 4 4 3 4 4 4 — 34

Forrest Watson, who won the title last year at Spokane, was well up the list with 161, bracketed with Harold Lineham of the home club, who had a lovely 75 in the morning, including no less than six threes.

Some curiously lopsided scores were recorded. The most prominent of these was registered by John Hart, who had a 78 in the afternoon, after a first round of 93.

There are altogether six Victoria men still in the running, namely: Moore, Lineham, Terry, Thomas, Matson and Fell.

Dolp's and Moe's cards compared with par:

Par—	Out	4 4 4 3 5 4 3 4 4—35
	In	4 3 4 4 5 3 4 4 4—35—70
Morning
Dolp	Out	4 4 5 4 5 4 4 4 4—38
	In	5 3 4 3 5 4 5 4 4—37—75
Moe	Out	5 4 5 3 5 5 3 5 4—39
	In	5 4 5 2 5 4 5 4 5—39 78
Afternoon
Dolp	Out	3 4 6 3 5 4 2 4 4—35
	In	4 4 6 4 6 3 4 4 4—39—74
Moe	Out	5 4 4 3 5 5 3 4 4—36
	In	5 3 4 4 5 4 4 3 4—36—72

The first round of the championship flight is being played to-day over 36 holes, which should prevent any upsets. After the men have teed off the ladies follow on with their eighteen-hole qualifying round, the lowest sixteen scores to enter the charmed circle. With the entry list as it is it will take some pretty snappy play to do this, especially with the field numbering eighty players.

Mrs. Guy Rigel, the defending champion, is drawn with Mrs. Philbrick, the local star, in what should provide some of the most interesting golf of the day. There will be no play in the other flights to-day, but to-morrow matches will start in all flights.

Following are the qualifying scores:

RISKS HIS CROWN TO-NIGHT

FIDEL LA BARBA

St. Louis, June 21—The world's champion flyweight boxing crown will be at stake here to-night when Fidel La Barba, titleholder, meets Mike Brody of Peoria, Ills., in a scheduled ten-round bout.

Scottish Eleven to Oppose Local Team Has Been Selected

The Scottish team to oppose the Victoria All-star eleven at the Royal Athletic Park on Wednesday evening starting at 6 o'clock was announced this morning by Sam Davidson, president of the Dominion Football Association.

The team is as follows: Hamilton, goal, No. 1; Buchanan, right-back, No. 2; Blair, left-back, No. 5; Muirhead, left-half, No. 7; Simpson, centre-half, No. 9; Swallow, right-half, No. 10; McLean, outside-right, No. 18; Gallagher, inside-right, No. 15; Munro, centre-forward, No. 16; Hunter, inside-left, No. 17; and Cook, outside left, No. 19.

Francis T. Hunter Advances Further in Wimbledon Tourney

Wimbledon, June 21.—Francis T. Hunter, the only surviving American besides William T. Tilden, in the men's singles of the Wimbledon lawn tennis tournament, advanced to the third round to-day by defeating the veteran English player, Lieut.-Col. Algernon Kingscote, in straight sets at 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.

After the Hunter Victory a heavy rain started, holding up play.

The rain abating, Rene Lacoste resumed his match with S. M. Jacobs, India, to whom he had lost his first set and took the next three in row to win the match at 2-6, 6-0, 6-3, 6-4. The French star, while victorious, failed to play up to his usual form.

Winnipeg Boxer To Show His Wares In Vancouver Tourney

Dave Perry, Recently Returned From California Invasion, Comes to Terms

Vancouver, B.C., June 21 — Dave Perry, Winnipeg featherweight, is the latest battler to accept terms to take part in Vancouver's featherweight elimination tournament, which gets under way next Friday night at the Arena with the fifteen-round set to between Bad News Eber of Toronto and Vic Foley.

Perry, who has been hurling challenges westward at Vic Foley off and on for the past two years, recently returned from an invasion of California rings, where he met with considerable success. One of his achievements there was the beating of Young Farrell, San Francisco battler, who gave Vic Foley a tough argument in Sacramento last year.

With Bad News Eber, Bobby Booth of Toronto, Perry and Vic Foley, already lined up, matchmaker Jack Allen is keeping the wires hot for more talent, and expects to conclude negotiations with Jackie Johnson of Toronto shortly.

Foley and Eber have been drawing large crowds of fans daily to the Cavalry Club for their workouts. Ringworms who have watched Eber in action proclaim him the most finished workman yet to appear here with the possible exception of Tod Morgan.

Foley is boxing daily with Larry Holliday and Billy Townsend, and Eber with Harvey Holliday.

SUPPORTING BOUTS

The supporting bouts on the card so far lined up contain plenty of local interest. Harvey Holliday, local flyweight ace, is matched with George Ishhi, the Seattle Japanese battler, who boxed Bud Davies and Hector McDonald here.

The four-round special event finds Billy Townsend and Gordon Wallace paired off and another good bout was added to the card to-day with the signing of Larry Holliday, the K.O. king of the lightweights, with Jimmy McDonald, who recently beat Ted Noble here. A four-round opener will complete the card.

HERMAN GETS DECISION

Hutchinson, Kansas, June 21.—Tiny Jim Herman, Portland, Ore., heavyweight, won the newspaper decision over Mike Arnold, Denver heavyweight, in a ten-round bout here last night. Herman weighed in at 219½ and Arnold at 189.

Burns Club Hosts To Visiting Scotch Football Players

Dinner and Dance Held in Chamber of Commerce Last Night

Members of the visiting Scottish football team and officials of the Scottish Football Association were guests of the Victoria Burns Club at a banquet and dance held last night in the Chamber of Commerce.

John Hosie, who acted as chairman, extended a hearty welcome to the team stating that members of the Burns Club had nothing but admiration for the brilliant exponents of the game of football.

TOASTS OFFERED

The toast to the visitors was proposed by Col. J. Lightbody, D.S.A., T.D., who recalled the early days of football in Scotland. He also gave the history of several prominent old players, the majority of whom were remembered by the visitors.

President Campbell of the Scottish Football Association, who is acting as manager of the team, responded. He stated the Scottish team was beyond doubt the strongest ever to tour Canada.

J. G. Brown proposed the toast to the "Victoria select team," which was responded to by Alexander Peden.

During the evening the officials and players were introduced by President Campbell.

A feature of the banquet was the dinner menu. All the various dishes were named after the Scottish football clubs.

During the evening Robert Morrison rendered two solos, while members of the team also contributed to the programme. Burns's grace was said by William Nichol.

Mad Bull Continues To Lead in Marathon

Crescent City, Cal., June 21.—Leading Flying Cloud by ten miles, Mad Bull, Karook Indian runner in the 480 mile marathon from San Francisco to Grant's Pass, Ore., arrived here at 5.17 o'clock yesterday, maintaining his first place in the contest, which started June 14.

Mad Bull had covered 385 miles of the 480 on his schedule. He announced plans for resting three hours and then resuming the race.

Flying Cloud held the lead in the race up to last Wednesday night, when Mad Bull slipped past him while he was asleep. Since that time Flying Cloud has been pressing the pace setter closely, and race officials said the two might start out about together if Mad Bull adhered to his rest programme, and Flying Cloud continued on without resting here.

Reports from Melika had failed to arrive here last night, but yesterday he was about twenty-two miles behind Mad Bull. Yesterday Melika ran sixty-six miles to Mad Bull's sixty-two, while Flying Cloud covered seventy.

Chief Bender Returns To Mound and Pitches His Team to Victory

Jeannette, Pa., June 21—Chief Bender, famous pitcher of the Philadelphia Athletics a decade ago, now manager of the Johnstown Middle Atlantic League club, pitched his team to a one-hit, shutout victory over Jeannette to-day. The score was 4-0. Bender gave no bases on balls. Only two local players reached first base, one on the only hit garnered off the veteran's delivery and the other on an error.

Bender is forty-four years old.

Small Bet On This Baby Brought Back Sum of $217.40

Antimony Pays Record Price By Winning at Blue Bonnets Track Near Montreal

New York, June 21.—Given less than a chance in 100 to win, Antimony astounded the pickers of winners yesterday by placing first in the second race at the Blue Bonnets track near Montreal.

What few backers the low rated race horse had reaped a golden harvest at pari-mutuel odds of $217.40 to $2. W. T. Trenholme of Montreal, the owner, also cashed in on an $800 purse as the horse raced home ahead of Arrant Jade and Soubrette.

On other tracks eloquent proof was given that you cannot dope a horse race.

LEFT AT POST

For the second time in recent races, E. M. Byers' bay colt, Houston, was made the favorite at Aqueduct and for the second time he was left at the post. As the colt was well played he burned up a lot of money. Even the addition of blinkers in this event could not avail to get the horse away from the barrier with the rest. Jefferson Livingston's chestnut, Adams, at 6 to 1, was winner with Red Pate second and Grange third. The event was the featured Union Claiming stakes at seven furlongs.

H. P. Whitney's Dash Dear paid $10 to $2 in winning the Zoo Eden purse at Latonia, Ky. Willie Garner rode the winner and his uncle, Mac Garner, was close behind in third place on Tum On. Jockey Allen on Hedemora was second.

Jockey Yates at Fairmount had a big day, riding three winners in succession and placing second in the next. Even an outsider, Twinkling, at $35.30 to $2, came home ahead under his riding.

Upstanding Athlete

right-half-back of St. Mirren. In forcing the game he has no superiors in Scotland and, within a radius of thirty yards, is a ready marksman. He was one of the renowned St. Mirren half-back line when they won the Scottish Cup in 1926 and the foundation of that triumph was undoubtedly laid by Morrison, Summers and McDonald. His standard is high and his consistency equally so. As St. Mirren's only representative he is worthily upholding the reputation of the club.

Horse Racing Will Open At Victoria Track on August 10

Good Strings of Horses Coming; Bert Ives to Act as Racing Secretary

The horse racing season in Victoria will open at Colwood Park, August 10-17; Willows, August 20-27; Colwood Park, September 10-17. The management is looking forward to the most successful and interesting meetings ever held on Victoria tracks.

The impression which has gone abroad, that there will be no racing in Victoria this year is entirely without foundation, according to a statement issued by the Colwood Park Racing Association. The mile track at Colwood Park is in first class condition and the half-mile circle at the Willows is just right. The money will amount to not less than $55,000 and some of the best of the thoroughbreds will be seen in operation.

AUTOMATIC MACHINES

Automatic betting machines, issuing straight, place and show tickets will be used at both tracks. Machine betting, as introduced on the Canadian tracks by Colwood Park Limited, inspires confidence among the betting public. No ticket is printed until it is actually sold, and every sale is automatically recorded the moment it is made.

The Willows meeting, August 20-27, unfortunately clashes with Lansdowne Park. This, while regrettable, is unavoidable so far as Victoria is concerned, every effort having been made to induce the Vancouver Racing Association to change its date. The Provincial Exhibition will be held in Victoria at that time and horse racing is essential. The years when it was held without races were financial failures and the agreement between the City Council and Colwood Park, Limited makes racing necessary during the exhibition week.

GOOD HORSES COMING

Some of the best strings in the South have been secured for the three Victoria meetings, and most of the Vancouver Island owners are pledged to stay with the home tracks.

Bert Ives, racing secretary at Salt Lake, who will officiate in that capacity at Victoria, has lined up several strings of first raters, and the three meetings are assured a full supply of horses, fully up to standard both in quality and quantity.

Crusader, Famous Son of Man o'War, May be Out of Racing Forever

New York, June 21.—Crusader, famous son of Man o'War and widely acclaimed as the three-year-old champion of 1926, will be out of the races indefinitely if not for good, it was learned yesterday as a result of injuries sustained when the thoroughbred was kicked at the post Saturday in the Brokolyn Handicap at Aqueduct track.

Crusader, bred and owned by Samuel D. Riddle of Philadelphia has earned close to $200,000 in three years and was the big money winner of 1926.

Horse Racing Now Invaded With Black Shadow of Scandal

New York, June 21.—Horse racing is the latest sport to be invaded by the shadow of scandal. Private detectives are on the trail of three men accused of attempting to persuade two jockeys to "slough" a steeplechase.

The jockeys are Andy Ferguson and Fred Thorndyke, who ride for Mrs. Payne Whitney's Green Tree Stables.

According to Ferguson and Thorndyke, the trio sought to get a "sure thing" on a race at the Aqeduct track, on Long Island Beach. They wanted the two jockeys "to take their mounts" —Jolly Rogers and Connie Burt. For this each was to get $3,000.

Eagles Chalk Up Win Over Sons And Now Crowd Leaders

Sons Hug Cellar Position by 2-0 Defeat; Givens Hits Home Run

Travelers Now Lead Feathered Tribe by One Game; Great Game Thursday

Eagles chalked up a 2-0 victory over the Sons of Canada in the senior amateur league ball game at the Royal Athletic Park last night. The game was one of the fastest seen this season, although plenty of bobbles were seen on both sides.

ONE GAME BEHIND

As a result of their victory the Eagles are now just one game behind the league leading Travelers. These two clubs will clash on Thursday night and the lodgemen will be after another win so as to boost themselves on even terms with the samplemen for the league leadership.

For five innings last night neither team was able to score. In the sixth the Eagles snared a one-run lead when Jimmy Givens came through with a single to send "Hap" Gandy home.

HITS A HOMER

No further scoring was done until the eighth, when Givens again came into the limelight, driving a long hit to right field for a home run. The Sons got plenty of men on the bases, but they were unable to hit in the pinches with the result that the runners died on the bags.

Jack Curtis was touched up for seven hits, while Johnny Kerr, who hurled for the Eagles, allowed five. The former struck out six and Kerr was given credit for one strike-out.

'Twas Great Day At Cowichan For These Two

Sunday was a great day at Cowichan Lake for Dr. A. L. Bechtel and E. P. Fitzgerald Roe if the catch in the View Street windows of M. and A. H. Fox yesterday is any indication.

The two enthusiastic fishermen caught twenty-three of the finest fish, the largest weighting five and one-half pounds. Part of the catch was placed on exhibition.

Wednesday Cricket

Wednesday cricket matches scheduled to-morrow are as follows:

Tillicums vs. Hudson's Bay at Jubilee grounds.

T. and V's. vs. Five C's at Beacon Hill.

Both games will start at 2.15 o'clock.

The teams will be as follows:

Tillicums—Heinekey, Pendray, Tickle, Booth, Halkett, Fletcher, Lee, Sewell, Johnson, Broadhurst and Baker.

Hudson's Bay—A. Haines, Shrimpton, White, Starkey, McIlmoyl, Hanson Parke, Paradise, Oakman, Adams and Tyrell.

Johnny Farrell Has Three Stroke Lead

Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., June 21.—Johnny Farrell, Quaker Ridge professional, had a lead of three strokes over Willie Macfarlane to-day to start their second half of a 72-hole Shawnee open golf tournament. He topped the strong field with a fine card of 138 for the first 36 holes.

Tommy Armour, Washington, D.C., newly-crowned open champion, found the going difficult and turned in cards of 80-71—151.

WINS MEDAL ROUND

Broadmoore, Colo., June 21.—William Rubridge of Denver with a 72, was the medalist in the first 18 holes of qualifying play for the transmissippi golf championship here to-day.

Close behind Rubridge were Eddie Held of St. Louis, present transmissippi champion and Jimmie Manion, St. Louis city champion who recorded seventy-threes.

SNARED

A Story of One Wonderful Week

By MALCOLM DUART

Copyright 1927

"But that was different. He had jumped on my stomach."

The girl turned, her chin held high. "He thinks it was quite all right for me to keep Smith from hurting him, but it was wrong for me to keep him from hurting Smith. He's so manly!"

"She licked you both, Pierce," Bodey said. "Now for the Lord's sake, snap out of it—both of you! I've had Smith on my hands, howling because I threw him into the barn. And here you two people are at it. Aren't you ashamed?"

The youth hung his head, but Nadine lifted hers higher. "Certainly not, Mr. Bodey! What have I to be ashamed of?"

"You ought to be ashamed of quarreling. But as a fighter, I'll say you're there! Can you two people talk seriously a moment?" Without waiting for a reply he pulled a chair toward him, straddled the back with his legs and sat down. "I'm not just sure you came back, Pierce, to warn me about the sheriff's squad. However, you did it and I'm much obliged. I'm not sure why Miss Rollins didn't call for help when they were here."

"Charley made me hide in the hay," she said.

"Still, you could have screamed. Since you didn't, I take it that you didn't want to. I appreciate your silence." His eyes twinkled. "It saved me a ride into Joliet that I didn't want to take. But we are four of us here in the house together, and one of us is Smith."

"He's simply contemptible," said Nadine.

"He's a fat-head," declared Pierce.

This agreement of opinion caused them to draw nearer together, and Pierce made place for the girl to lean against the table at his side.

"Unfortunately you're both right," continued Bodey. "However, Smith is with us, and I've been trying to tell him to behave himself. Pierce, will you do me a favor? Will you remember that Smith isn't as intelligent as you are, and give me a bit of help in handling him?"

"Surely," said Pierce, much pleased. "What shall I do?"

"Don't let him get into another of those foolish rages. Talk to him as you would to a thick-witted child."

Nadine edged away from Pierce a trifle. "Smith isn't the only one who gets into foolish rages," she said, pointedly.

"Now look here," began Pierce, "you can't——"

Bodey drowned the youth's voice with a shout. "Please! Don't say it! Let's have peace. Miss Rollins!" He swung toward the girl.

"What?"

"You'll help us, too, won't you? I'm seriously afraid that Smith will bother you if he finds you alone. Would you mind staying near Pierce, or me, while the boy's around? He's big and surprisingly strong."

"Why don't you send him away?" she asked.

He shook his head. "You've probably guessed that I can't do that—not now, anyhow. He'll probably hold a grudge against you for jumping onto him while he was fighting Pierce——"

"I'm sure I don't care what grudges he holds," she said.

"Probably not. But I'll tell you this—you can't handle him alone."

"You bet she can't!"

The three turned with a start. It was Smith who had spoken from the doorway, and his heavy face was drawn into a scowl.

"I heard what you said. I heard it all. I was listening," he reported, coming into the room. "What's more, I'm not going to stand any more of this gab — knocking me behind by back, weren't you?" he inquired fiercely of Bodey.

"Yes," said the man, with a quiet nod.

"Then I tell you something. I serve notice." He had held one arm behind his back, and now he moved it forward. He was holding a short iron bar. "I'm going to tell you something you don't want to hear."

CHAPTER XVI

Pierce made a quick movement, which Nadine intercepted.

"Don't!" she gasped, holding to his coatsleeve.

Smith raised his weapon and waved it in a wide arc. "Let go of him! Just let him jump on me now, and you'll see what'll happen!"

Nadine held more tightly to Pierce, who was straining forward as if about to leap.

"Pierce," said Bodey, "let's hear what Smithy has to say." The man had not left his chair, and was watching Smith with quiet interest.

"Sure you'll hear what I've got to say," observed the youth, flourishing the iron bar. "You can't help yourselves. I'll show you who's boss of me! You people been making a lot of talk about me behind my back, and now I'm going to tell you something."

"Yes, you said that before," observed Bodey. "Suppose you let us in on your secret."

"I'm serving notice. You can't keep on calling me a bonehead and a calf, any of you. You think I'm contemptible, do you, darn you!" He poked the bar toward Nadine. "I'm a fat-head, am I?" His voice was mounting to a scream. "You think I ain't as intelligent as this—this polecat here!" He indicated Pierce. "I'll show you, all of you!"

His head jerked from side to side, and with a shrill yell he jumped at the young man who faced him, beside Nadine.

Bodey was sitting midway between the two youths, and a little to one side. At the instant in which Smith raised his bar and bent forward to leap, the man lifted himself slightly from the seat of his chair, grasped the curved top-piece of the back, and swung the chair upward. It struck Smith's outstretched arm, and in a fraction of a second later, his chin. The iron bar went clattering to the far corner of the room, and the boy collapsed upon the floor.

The three others stood gazing at him, the girl too paralyzed with fright to move, Pierce watchfully ready to repel another assault, Bodey with the friendly interest of a physician observing a patient.

A broad red line appeared on Smith's chin, swelling at once into a flood of blood. The boy himself remained motionless.

"Dip a clean cloth in some water, will you, Pierce?" asked Bodey, kneeling beside the prostrate youth. "Better look in my bundle of clothes—only clean linen in the house is there, I guess." He turned Smith over on his back and inspected the wound. "It'll be a lesson to me to keep towels on hand, won't it?"

Nadine had joined him on the floor by the time Pierce returned with one of Bodey's laundered shirts. The girl was making little sounds of sympathy in her throat, and smoothing the hair back from the boy's forehead.

"Souse one end of the shirt in the water-bucket," the man instructed, as he saw Pierce holding the shirt befor him, uncertainly.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily's Adventure Voyage

Copyright, 1927, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Hopping one day down to the edge of the big brook which flowed out of the duck pond ocean, Uncle Wiggily saw a large wash tub on the bank of the stream.

"Ha! That will be the very thing for me!" cried the rabbit gentleman. "I shall go on an adventure voyage. All too long have I been hopping over the fields and through the woods, up hill and down dale to look for things to happen. Now I shall go voyaging on water and I shall find many new things, such as islands that I showed the children from the Hollow Stump School when they did not know their 'jeegogafy' lesson!"

Uncle Wiggily pushed his boat out.

Uncle Wiggly laughed and twinkled his pink nose as he he thought of how he had taken the puplis out of school when the Lady Mouse Teacher was ill.

"Yes, I shall go voyaging!" he told himself. "This is going to be very jolly, I can see that."

Uncle Wiggily did not know who had left the wash tub on the bank of the brook and he did not much care.

"Noobdy seems to want it," he said to himself, "and it will make me a fine boat in which to go adventuring. I'll gnaw myself some tree branches for poles and oars."

No sooner said than done, and with two short sticks for oars, and a longer one for a pole to push himself off in case he ran aground on a mud bank, the rabbit gentleman was ready. He rolled the wash tub to the edge of the brook, puahed it into the water, got in himself with a large toadstool for a seat and he was ready.

With his pole Uncle Wiggily pushed his boat out into the middle of the brook, and then he found he did not need to row, for the brook flowed so swiftly that it took him down stream just as, after a rain, the water in the gutter takes down the tiny wooden ships made by the boys and girls.

"This is certainly very jolly!" chuckled Mr. Longears as, sitting on his toadstool seat, he watched the banks of the brook slip by. "All I need is an adventure to make me happy. I wish I had brought my lunch along so I could stay all day. But I dare say I can go ashore and find a few wild carrots or something like that."

All of a sudden, as Uncle Wiggily was floating along, he began to feel his hind paws getting wet. And, looking that it was covered with water and ing at the bottom of the tub, he saw that more was puddling in through the cracks in his funny, round boat.

"Oh, my ship is leaking!" cried the rabbit in alarm. "It is going to sink! Oh, I'm having an adventure all right!"

Faster and faster the water came in the cracks of the tub until it rose to Uncle Wiggily's ankles. Then it began rising to his knees.

"This will never do!" he exclaimed. "I must row to shore before I sink in deep water!"

But that was easier said than done, for when Mr. Longears tried to row his tub boat to the nearer bank he found that the current in the brook was so strong that it carried him right on down in the middle.

Then more water leaked in. Uncle Wiggily could no longer sit on his toadstool. He had to stand up. With the long pole he tried to push his boat to the bank, but the end of the pole stuck in the mud and the rabbit could not pull it out. Indeed, by clinging to it, he was nearly pulled into the water himself.

"Oh, what am I going to do?" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I did not count on having such a dangerous adventure voyage as this!" Below him he could hear the roar of the waterfalls and he knew in a short time he might be carried over them.

But, all of a sudden, on a point of land toward which he was drifting, the shipwrecked rabbit gentleman saw Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow run out. The point of land was like a tongue thrust into the water.

"We'll save you, Uncle Wiggily!" they barked. They were playing Wild West and had a clothes line for a lasso. Quickly Jackie tossed the coils of rope and lassoed it around the tub ship. Then he and Peetie braced their paws and pulled Mr. Longears in his leaking boat to shore, just before the tub filled and sank. The rabbit was soaking wet, but he did not mind that.

"I am saved!" he cried. "Next time I go to sea it will not be in a leaky washtub for a boat!"

So things are not as bad as they might have been. And is the blackboard doesn't take all the hard words out of the spelling book to throw at the piano, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Peetie's shooter.

THEY HAD NOT GONE OUT ON THE LAKE UNTIL AFTER SUPPER, AND AS THE SUNSET LINGERED THEY ROWED FARTHER AND FARTHER FROM CAMP. NIGHT CLOSED IN BEFORE THEY EXPECTED IT AND HID THE SHORE.

DROPPING HIS OARS A MINUTE TO REST NORMAN SAID, "WHY NOT TEST OUR KNOWLEDGE OF THE STARS? LET'S SEE. OUR SCOUTMASTER TAUGHT US TO LOOK FOR THE BIG DIPPER. THEN THE NORTH STAR IS THE BRILLIANT ONE ALMOST DIRECTLY IN LINE WITH THOSE TWO STARS FORMING THE FRONT OF THE BOWL.

HAVING LOCATED THE NORTH STAR IT WAS EASY TO FIND THEIR COURSE BACK TO THE CABIN. FROM HIS SEAT IN THE STERN FRANK FACED THE NORTH OR POLE STAR WHILE NORMAN ROWED.

"AW, IT WAS EASY," THEY TOLD THEIR FATHER. "FACE TOWARD THE NORTH STAR AND YOU WILL BE HEADING ALMOST DUE NORTH."

Wall Street TO-DAY

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, June 21 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—To-day's market was a mixed affair. Buying in special issues was featured while the main body of stocks continued to attract rather liberal selling.

A few of the low priced rails were in demand on merger prospects. The Union Pacific earning report for May showed a lowering in net.

Reactionary sentiment in outside circles appears to be growing more pronounced. The market, technically at least, would undoubtedly be greatly benefited by a reaction at this time, and we would not be surprised to see a reactionary development under way at any time now.

New York, June 21 (By B.C. Bond Corporation's direct Wall Street wire)—The Wall Street Journal's stock market edition this afternoon says:

Price moves to-day suggested that the stock market was becoming accustomed to the spectacle of rising brokers' loans.

Although Monday's statement showed collateral loans becoming larger and, at yesterday's figures at a new peak, the general list turned strong after a brief period of selling.

An important influence was the recognition that the latter was largely due to substantial sums in bonds. This situation is expected to be relieved by Summer lull. Relief from the bond congestion should also be afforded by July 1 interest and dividend disbursements.

Another factor which allayed nervousness regarding the loans was the continuance of the 4 per cent rate for call money.

Early weakness was followed by resumption of vigorous bullish activities in many sections of the list. Baldwin and Air Reduction rose to the highest levels of their record. General Railway Signal also advanced briskly. Pivotal issues like General Motors and U.S. Steel quickly rallied from their early lows.

American Can developed noteworthy activity, rising to new high ground for the year. Can has been nursing a stale short interest for some time. Recent buying has been for the account of conservative financial interests.

New Alberta Oil Find Most Important Yet

Lethbridge, June 21.—At a banquet tendered O. G. Devenish, discoverer of crude oil in the Skiff field, near here, by the Lethbridge Board of Trade, Professor Allan of the University of Alberta made the statement that, in his opinion, the discovery of crude oil in the plains area of southern Alberta was the most important oil discovery in Alberta to date.

He did not minimize other discoveries which had been made in Alberta, but declared that the Skiff discovery well, located on a broad fold, provided a starting point for working out the geology of an oil structure which may prove to be comparable to the large producing fields of the western United States. That the field extended probably farther west than Magrath, Alta., was his conviction. The discovery well is making about 250 barrels of twenty-two degree Baume crude on a swab test.

To-day's Mining Markets

It was a small day on both Victoria and Vancouver market. Coast Copper sold down to 15.80 in Vancouver, while an offering of 650 shares of its Consolidated twin, George Copper, found a thin market and sold down to 79.

On the Victoria exchange, however, George Copper on a volume of 700 shares traded from 91 to 92.

Dunwell sold from 141 to 143 in Victoria, and at 140 in Vancouver.

Lucky Jim continues under the 20 point, despite all the good news that has been coming out of Mr. Larsen's camp in the Interior. Offerings of the stock are more plentiful now, as some of the long-time holders are turning a proportion of their share certificates into dollars.

ISSUE ALL SUBSCRIBED

The last of the 60,000-share Rufus issue on the basis of 10, to finance the deep diamond-drilling this Summer, was cleaned up to-day, with a number of small blocks going out and a local brokerage house taking in one block all that was left. This means that all low-priced Rufus has been taken up and from now on, as the work at the property proceeds, Rufus and Argenta are likely to trail their neighbor, George Copper, up the quotation ladder.

VANCOUVER MARKET INTEREST GROWS

E. B. Quickmore of the B.C. Bond's Vancouver stock department, was over to-day to get in touch with local market conditions. He said that the growth of interest in B.C. mining securities in Vancouver has been phenomenal. The business in these issues as a result of development during the last year has grown 2,000 per cent in the last eight months, he said. He asserted that a big bull market in British Columbia stocks was now in the making and would be under way in the Fall, as returns come from the North.

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKET

Winnipeg, June 21.—The grain market to-day lapsed into dullness with practically no buying interest until a few minutes before the session closed. The sluggishness was reflected in lower prices for the greater part of the session but the belated flurry inspired an advance which carried values from ⅛ to one cent above Monday's close.

Exporters were not in the market and spreading operations were limited.

Coarse grains were dull. Oats fell fractionally, while barley and rye held firm. Germany was reported to have bought rye liberally.

Winnipeg, June 21. — To-day's weather report shows Winnipeg, rain, 60 degrees; Calgary, clear, 50, showers last night; Edmonton, 50, clear; Saskatoon, clear, fine; Regina, clear, fine, 50, rain yesterday; Moose Jaw, fine, 45.

Chicago, June 21 (By B.C. Bond Corporation's direct pit wire).—It was a day of great irregularity in the wheat market. The bearish influence of the advancement of the Kessinger bill to third reading was offset by late harvest and further rains on the southwest. Export business was slow because foreigners are claiming that arrivals are sufficient for their immediate needs, and they are disposed to await crop advices from surplus territories.

We still contend that while there may be some important improvement in the southwest Winter wheat belt, as compared with June 1, the variation will not be of sufficient proportion to greatly affect the price.

The price-making factors in our opinion are the territory east of the Mississippi River in the United States and the Spring wheat of Canada.

Reports received from southern Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee are not especially gratifying. Consequently we are disposed to view the present price of wheat as reasonable, and to advocate buying on moderate setbacks.

Corn was even more erratic than wheat, but ended strong after local traders had become too enthusiastic over prospects of legislation at Springfield. We are inclined to believe that selling is being overdone, although we are not disposed to take a very positive position until December corn is allowed to be quoted, because the true reflection of growing crop conditions can only be discovered in this future. Reports on oats were not quite so favorable and the market ruled firm.

With any kind of support from other grains, oats ought soon to be commanding a better price. Liverpool is due ⅜d to ¾d higher.

New York, June 21 (By R. P. Clark Leased Wire)—Whitney to-day says:

"It is suggested that you do not bid up for stocks while the market continues within a trading range, but take the sound ones only on reactions. This morning should be about as good a buying point as the current market will provide. Do not buy stocks at the opening to-day, but after the opening on any attempt to extend the closing reaction take them as they are offered, anticipating a close to-night higher than last night and higher than the opening.

"C.F. should be bought between 83 and 86. On reaction buy Union Carbide if not owned, same procedure in American Can and New Haven. Other issues favored are Pittsburg Coal and General Electric, also Western Pacific and Industrial Alcohol."

EGG SURPLUS STILL PILING UP IN B.C.; PRICE BREAK FEARED

Vancouver, June 21.—While export of eggs from China has practically ceased, removing that competition for a time, at least, as a factor in the markets of Canada and the United States, storage of eggs on both sides of the boundary is said to be high above average.

Despite the Canadian dumping duty the condition of the egg market in the United States has an important bearing on prices in Canada.

EXPORTS CUT OFF

During the first quarter of the present year there was a huge increase in the volume of importations of Chinese eggs into the United States. During May, however, conditions in that troubled country practically cut off all export of eggs and egg products to the Occident.

Thus, while the heavy shipments contributed to the present over-abundant supply of eggs, and, coupled with the continued heavy production in the West, have threatened the stability of prices, cessation of Chinese exports holds out the hope that the market may right itself and come through without too severe effects by drawing upon the unusually heavy domestic holdings.

U.S. HEAVILY STOCKED

Local dealers say that virtually all available storage space in British Columbia has been filled and still production continues heavy.

In the United States, on June 1, holdings of case eggs totalled 9,096,000 cases, or an increase of 3,595,000 cases over May 1. The total is also 1,860,000 cases above that of June 1, 1926.

CANNERIES FIX BERRY PRICES

Vancouver, June 21 — Jam strawberries, 8½ cents. Canning, 9½ cents. Canning raspeberries, 10 cents.

On the above basis canneries will begin the season, contracting for berries from British Columbia producers. The scale is said to be generally uniform throughout the Fraser Valley and on Vancouver Island. It is slightly lower than last year for raspberries and from 1½ to 2½ cents lower for strawberries.

A difference of opinion is apparent as to probable production of berries. Some reports are to the effect that raspberry canes did not get good enough growth last year due to lack of moisture, and that strawberry plants were injured by late frosts. Other reports as emphatically state that the crop in each variety will be greater than last year.

Following is the new schedule of contract prices quoted by canneries to shippers, f.o.b. cannery; where two prices are given the first being for jam berries and the second for canning berries:

Strawberries—8½c lb.; 9½c; last year 11c; 11c.

Raspberries — Jam berry price open; canning 10c, last year 8c; 11c.

Loganberries—5c, 6c; last year 6¼c; 6½c.

Gooseberries — 6½c; 6½c; last year, same prices.

Black currants (cleaned) — Jam, 12c; last year, 14c.

Red currants—6½c.

Blackberries—5c.

Royal Anne cherries—6c.

Red cherries—6c.

Plan to Revive Great West Loan

Winnipeg, June 21.—Plans for the reorganization of the Great West Permanent Loan Company were laid before Chief Justice Mathers to-day by A. J. Andrews, K.C., representing a group of debenture holders, who told the court that if a postponement of the trial could be made until after vacation, which ends September 1, there was a possibility that the company could be saved from a winding up order. At present the trial is set for July 18.

His Lordship, while declining to order adjournment, stood over the application for a week to allow solicitors for the company and the petitioner to discuss the matter. George Adam, shareholder, is petitioning for the winding up order.

PRAIRIE WEATHER IDEAL FOR CROPS

Winnipeg, June 21.—Wheat has made rapid growth during the past three days. The weather has been hot and showery in many sections. Reports to mill men, railways and grain exchange firms show a better condition of growing grain than at the same time for last eleven years. Continued showers are expected to keep down cut worms. No damage has thus far been reported from those pests. Predictions of a yield on the 19,000,000 acres sown in excess of last year, when there was 21,000,000 seeded, are now being made. Pool officials, however, suggest that much of the late seeded grain will have difficulty maturing.

English Coal Mine Makes Million Profit

London, June 18.—While the majority of industrial enterprises in England have suffered from the general depression of the last year or two, the annual report of Cory Brothers & Co. Ltd., colliery proprietors and foreign coal depot owners and coal exporters, shows a net profit of something more than £1,000,000 for the year. This is more than double the firm's profit in the previous year.

The Butterley Company of Derby is another firm engaged in the coal business which has been enabled to weather the stoppage of the coal mining operations for a considerable period last year, due to the miner's strike, and now declares a total annual distribution of fifteen per cent. dividend, free of tax, as compared with ten per cent. in the previous year.

Dalhousie Oil Plant Destroyed by Fire

Calgary, June 21.—Ill luck, which has dogged the footsteps of the Imperial Oil Company's drilling operations in Alberta, with the notable exception of Royalite well No. 4, struck again Friday evening when the Dalhousie No. 6 well in Turner Valley lost its derrick, boiler house and entire plant by fire.

Dalhousie No. 6 was close to production, the bit standing at 3,675 feet.

The fire brigade from the Royalite plant went to the scene of the fire, but their efforts to save the derrick and its contents were useless. The plant will be rebuilt, says J. H. MacLeod, manager of the Dalhousie Company.

The Dalhousie Company is affiliated with the Imperial Oil Company.

C.N.R. BETTERMENT PROGRAMME LARGE

Work Now Under Way Affecting All Parts of Transcontinental System

Montreal, June 21.—An extensive programme of new work and betterments is now under way throughout the Canadian National Railways system, this work affecting all parts of the line from the Atlantic to the Pacific and including new rail, ballast, buildings, bridge work and signalling.

At various points in the Atlantic, Central and Western regions new rail is being laid. On main line track 297 miles are being relaid with 100-pound rail, while for other important services 421 miles are being relaid with 85-pound rail. In connection with this work other track material required will include 4,042,000 tie plates and 858,000 rail anchors.

During the season a considerable amount of ballasting will be carried on and this will include 317,000 cubic yards of crushed rock, most of which will be placed on the main line between Montreal and Toronto. The balance of the ballast programme includes 24,000 cubic yards of slag and 1,763,000 cubic yards of gravel.

OTHER TRACK WORK

Other track work planned for the season will take care of the changes and additions to the terminal tracks at Charlottetown, P.E.I., the extension of the yards at Sarnia, Ontario, tracks in connection with the new engine terminal at Windsor, Ontario, and the extension of yard tracks at Port Mann, B.C. Work will be continued in the replacement of timber trestles at various points in each region, steel and concrete being used for this purpose.

Further extensions will be made to the automatic signal system. At present the main line westerly from the Montreal terminals to Coteau, a distance of thirty-eight miles, is protected by automatic lamp signals, and during the Summer the system will be extended westerly a further seventeen miles.

Automatic block signals will be placed between Red Bank and Governor's Road, Dundas subdivision, while between Black Rock and Bridgeburg electric operation switches and signal protection will be installed.

A number of buildings will be undertaken and completed at various points. One section of this work includes the construction of quarters for the reception and inspection of immigrants at the new deep water piers at Halifax. A building to provide shelter for the accommodation of passengers on their way from the pier to the railway platforms will be constructed.

NEW STATIONS

The principal work in new passenger stations will be that at Edmonton, Alberta, while other new stations will include a brick station at Jonquiere, Que., and a brick station and frame freight shed at Arvida, the new industrial town which has arisen out of the development in the Saguenay and Lake St. John districts. The new train shed at St. John, N.B., will be completed.

New engine terminal buildings will be constructed at Charlottetown, P.E.I., and Windsor, Ontario, while the engine house at Kamloops, B.C., will be extended.

A 2,000-ton ice house will be erected at Prince Rupert, B.C., while the existing ice house at Kamloops will be enlarged. Coaling plants, each of 100 tons capacity, are to be built at Oyen and Drumheller, Alberta.

The final work in buildings will be the commencement of a locomotive erecting shop at Point St. Charles, Montreal.

Most Prosperous Era in History of Coast Expected

San Francisco, June 21—J. R. Fitzgerald, agent for the American Hawaiian Steamship Company here, who has just returned from a tour of the United States, declared yesterday that shippers all along the Atlantic Coast, as a result of the recent reorganization of the inter-coastal steamship line, are looking forward to one of the most prosperous eras in history. He pointed out that the reorganization, long sought for by both shipper and consignee, guarantees a more stable service than at any time since the world war.

The local officers of the Matson Line announced yesterday that they have received radio advices from the liner Wilhelmina, that the vessel is speeding across the Pacific Ocean with one of her crew seriously ill with appendicitis. As a result the steamer will arrive here this afternoon, one day ahead of schedule. The man was stricken several days after the Wilhelmina left Honolulu.

The Williams Line freighter Willholo, in command of Captain C. E. Blacker, arrived here yesterday from New York via San Diego after one of the fastest voyages ever made in the intercoastal trade. The vessel made the trip from the East Coast in twenty-two days, and arrived at San Diego, her first Pacific point of call, in seventeen days.

A. J. McCarthy, manager of the Panama Pacific Line, arrived here yesterday aboard the company's liner Finland from New York, with word that bids have been asked for the second of three liners planned by the company for the intercoastal service. The first, the California, representing an outlay of $6,000,000, will be completed the end of this year.

Carries Canadian Lumber to England To Make Furniture

Montreal, June 21.—La Presse, a local newspaper, in its news pages publishes the following:

For the first time in fifteen years a cargo of wood destined to the manufacture of furniture left Montreal today for England.

The paper adds that English manufacturers generally purchased their wood in Russia, but owing to the strained relations between that country and Great Britain, commercial enterprises have been rendered difficult, and that the British will undoubtedly look to Canada for their raw material.

"This," the paper says, "will give an added impetus to the lumber industry of Canada."

Part of the cargo, 500,000 feet of pine, was cut in the Ottawa Valley. The ship, the Atos, will dock at Restigouche, N.B., on its way to the ocean and load on another 1,400,000 feet of spruce. The ship also carried 400,000 feet of birch.

Large Liquor Seizure Made Off Nova Scotia

Moncton, June 21—One of the largest liquor seizures in this vicinity for a long time was effected Saturday on Northumberland straits, four miles off Coal Spring Head, N.S., when the revenue launch Lady Laurier captured The Imp, a schooner believed to be en route with a cargo of illicit liquor to Port Elgin.

The cargo consisted of 350 cases of Scotch whisky, 200 gallons of rum and 100 gallons of alcohol. The value of the liquor was placed at $26,000.

TURNS FIRST SOD FOR C.N.R. BRANCH

Premier J. G. Gardiner of Saskatchewan Officiates at Ceremony

Shellbrook, Sask., June 21.—Watched by hundreds of persons who had come miles to witness the ceremony, Premier J. G. Gardiner of Saskatchewan yesterday turned the first sod on the Shellbrook-Medtsead branch of the Canadian National Railways.

Surrounded by Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Federal Minister of Agriculture; E. S. Clinch, M.P.P.; H. M. Sibbald, president of the Prince Albert Board of Trade, and Superintendent B. T. Chappell of the Canadian National Railways the Premier performed the ceremony and was presented with a silver spade in commemoration of the historical event.

When completed the new line will serve an adept agricultural territory. Up to the present agriculturists of the district have had to transport their grain by wagon road, some coming sixty to eighty miles to Shellbrook.

Many residents of Prince Albert attended the ceremony, coming to Shellbrook via a special Board of Trade excursion train.

Returning last night to Prince Albert, Premier Gardiner was guest of the Board of Trade there at a complimentary banquet.

Prince Albert, Sask., June 21.—At a complimentary banquet tendered by the Prince Albert Board of Trade last night to the Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Premier of Saskatchewan, Hon. T. C. Davis, M.P.P. for Prince Albert, made the announcement that the Provincial Government had succeeded in its negotiations with the Canadian National Railways regarding a traffic road addition to the St. Louis railway bridge over the South Saskatchewan River.

The necessity for a traffic bridge over this branch of the river has been urged for many years but with little success. It was announced that in negotiations with the Canadian National Railways the Government had found that body willing in every way to assist in removing the handicap. Mr. Davis paid a compliment to the generous co-operation and valuable aid given to the project by the Hon. Dr. J. M. Uhrich, M.P.P. for Rosthern constituency.

The traffic bridge will form the first connecting road link between the provincial highway systems north and south of the South Saskatchewan River.

OWNERS MAY HAVE TO ABANDON VESSEL

Vancouver, June 21.—Hung bow and stern on rocks at Whitecliff Island, thirty miles south of Prince Rupert, Ms. Challamba of the Pacific Ss. Company is reported sagging in the middle and likely to be abandoned by the owners.

The ship's hull is strained and her engines are out of commission, it is reported. She ran aground at high tide on Friday. The Vancouver tugboat Cape Scott and the Vancouver Drydock & Salvage Co. work outfit from Prince Rupert are endeavoring to salvage her, but it is expected she can not be refloated before Saturday or Sunday next. She has a hole in her side, and about sixty tons of cargo is being moved.

The Challamba was built in 1918 at Olympia, Wash., for the Commonwealth Government of Australia and made one or two voyages before being sold to United States registry. She is a wooden vessel 262 feet long, 46 feet beam, 21 feet deep. Her sister ship, Ms. Coolcha, went on the rocks at Albert Head, Vancouver Island, during the Winter gales of February, 1923.

STORAGE GROUP ELECTS OFFICERS

Winnipeg, June 21.—The Canadian Storage and Transfermen's Association, comprising fifty-seven of the leading warehouse and cartage companies in twenty-one of the Dominion's cities, concluded here Saturday its ninth annual convention.

Officers were re-elected as follows: President, C. F. Basil Tipett, Toronto; vice-president, G. H. Chadwich, Winnipeg; second vice-president, Alexander Fleming, Montreal; treasurer, J. O. MacCullum, Saskatoon; secretary, E. A. Quigsley, Vancouver; directors to represent the provinces: Alberta, Fred Johnston, Calgary, and R. V. McCosham, Edmonton; British Columbia, F. D. Grosse and Fred Crona, both of Vancouver; Manitoba, P. C. Dennison and C. C. MacKeag, both of Winnipeg; Saskatchewan, T. H. Smeet and H. France, both of Regina.

Regina, through its board of trade and one of its warehouse representatives, H. A. Knight, invited the association to hold its 1928 convention in that city. The directors will decide.

LINCOLN TO TAKE CAPACITY CARGO

American Mail Liner Sails Outward To-day; U.S. Naval Party on Board

Taking out over 200 passengers and capacity cargo, the American Mail liner President Lincoln, Capt. Hugh L. Jones, will sail from Victoria at 6 o'clock this evening for Japan, China, the Philippines and San Francisco.

The Lincoln will arrive here from Seattle at 4 o'clock this afternoon to pick up passengers and mail. Four cabin and twenty steerage passengers will board the vessel here, the former including Y. Saito, Japanese consul at Vancouver, en route to his home in Japan; Hans Hunter, R. Etienne and Mrs. Cecilia Park.

There is a large party of United States naval officers booked for the Lincoln to Manila. These include: Lieut.-Commander C. E. Reordan, Mrs. Reordan and their two children; Lieut-Commander Ellsworth Davis, Lieut-Commander James M. Doyle, Lieut-Commander G. B. Wilson, Lieut. H. A. Rochester and Ensigns F. P. Williams, J. O. Lambrecht, C. J. Dunfek, E. W. Young, L. H. Hawkinson and D. Sharp.

Other passengers on board will be: Representative Ralph Gilbert of Kentucky, who will make a tour of the Orient; F. K. Brun of the General Motors Company of New York, en route to Kobe; M. Matsukata, son of the Japanese representative in the League of Nations, bound for Yokohama; Mr. and Mrs. Leon C. Grove, N. Y., Ines and V. R. Wetzel, all of the United States Bureau of Education, bound for Manila; L. Chong, son of the minister of transportation of China, and Shubert Chee, director of the Hankow & Peking Railroad and owner of the Eastern Electric Corporation of China, en route to Shanghai.

The Lincoln will be loaded down to the plimsoll line for the outward trip, her cargo including heavy shipments of flour, lumber, machinery, canned goods and general freight.

MAUNGANUI WILL ARRIVE SATURDAY

Replacing Niagara, Ss. Maunganui One Day Behind Schedule From Antipodes

Replacing the R.M.S. Niagara, while that vessel is undergoing her annual overhaul at Sydney, N.S.W., the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand's liner Maunganui will arrive here from the Antipodes and Honolulu next Saturday. The Maunganui will put into quarantine at 6 a.m., according to advices received by the local C.P.R. offices, agents for the vessel.

The Maunganui is bringing a fairly good list and general cargo. Being a smaller boat than the two liners, Aorangi and Niagara, she is a day behind schedule on the voyage from down under.

The Maunganui has been switched from the San Francisco-Australasian run, where she plied on the same schedule as the Makura. She is a vessel of 11,340 tons displacement and is 430 feet in length. Her beam is 55.6 feet. The vessel was built in 1911 by the Fairfield Company Limited of Glasgow and is a steel-twin-screw steamer.

Five Foreign Ships Held at Manila Due To Stevedore Strike

Manila, June 21.—The stevedores' strike which started last week, spread yesterday with a walkout of 200 motor truckmen. As a result of the combined strike, five foreign vessels are held up in port here.

C.N.R. Employees Take Strike Vote

Montreal, June 21.—A strike vote is now being taken among 18,000 employees of the Canadian National Railways, including office clerks, station employees, such as baggage checkers and porters, stores and stationary department employees, shippers and stationary engineers and firemen, it was announced here yesterday.

The dispute arises out of the refusal of the company to accept the majority award of a board of conciliation recommending an increase in wages of 4½ cents an hour. A minority report recommended an increase of 2½ cents an hour.

RECORD CATCH

Seattle, June 21—The greatest catch of the season, 35,000 pounds of sable fish, was carried in the Yaquina, one of seven vessels of the local halibut fleet, which brought in catches yesterday. Vessels from the fleet are working from Kodiak Island to Eureka, Cal.

Births, Marriages, Deaths

DIED

BASSO—On June 19, accidentally, at Pike Lake, Victor Joseph Lorence Basso, age 19 years, born in this city, second son of Mr. Nicholas Basso of 2623 Rock Bay Avenue. The deceased is survived by, besides his father, one brother, Harry Basso, at home; two sisters, Mrs. Burren of Prince Rupert and Mrs. V. Newell of Spokane, Washington.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon, June 22, at 2.30 o'clock, from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Rev. J. P. Westman will officiate and the remains will be laid to rest in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

PLAXTON—On June 19, 1927, the death occurred suddenly, at Beaver Lake, Saanich, of Lorance Alfred Plaxton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plaxton of Holland Avenue, Saanich, aged 16 years 8 months. The deceased leaves to mourn his loss his mother and father, six sisters, five brothers, grandmother and grandfather; also two uncles.

The remains are reposing at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, from where the funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 3.30. Interment will be in Ross Bay Cemetery.

SMITH—At St. Joseph's Hospital, Monday, June 20, 1927, Jane Donald, widow of the late Samuel McC. Smith; late residence 423 Jessie Street. She leaves to mourn her loss three sons and three daughters, Shirley M. of Victoria, Paul M. and Roderick R. of Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. William Stone of 425 Jessie Street, Mrs. Eustace Hopkins of Hopkins' Landing, and Mrs. Alex. W. Moore of Utah, U.S.A.; also nine grandchildren and a brother, George McNutt, Head Street. A daughter, Mrs. J. L. Tait, predeceased her in January.

Funeral will take place Wednesday, June 22, at 3.30 p.m., from the B.C. Funeral Parlors. Interment at Ross Bay Cemetery.

HORSE RACING

Winnipeg, June 21.—Sanabar, three-year-old son of Roubaix-Samover, and favorite, won the Grain Exchange Handicap of seven furlongs, with Dossier second and Foreman third, at Polo Park yesterday. The winner was easily best. Good prices prevailed. Cleo's Rochester paid $10 to $1, and Fiery Rose almost an equal amount. George Kendall, of Winnipeg, claimed Arfali out of the second race.

The results were as follows:

First race—1, Rest Hour, $4.70, $3.25, $2.35; 2, Stann, $7.20, $3.35; 3, Ben, $2.75. Time, 1.06.

Second race—1, Cleo's Rochester, $21.95, $9.95, $5.60; 2, Argali, $4.90, $3.25; 3, Golden Red, $2.90. Time, 1.19 3-5.

Third race—1, Atheling Wood, $8.70, $5.50, $4.50; 2, Herbert, $22.30, $9.70; 3, Yamil, $6. Time, 1.05.

Fourth race—1, Gay Lomond, $5.20, $2.50, $2.35; 2, Fanny Fay, $2.55, $2.50; 3, Vesper Lad, $4.40. Time, 1.18 3-5.

Fifth race—1, Sanabar, $6.40, $3.70, $2.90; 2, Dossier, $5.65, $4.45; 3, Foreman, $4.70. Time, 1.31 1-5.

Sixth race—1, Sixpence, $11.25, $4.85, $3.30; 2, Lierre, $3.65, $2.60; 3, Nebraska Lad, $3. Time, 1.50.

Seventh race—1, Fiery Rose, $21.50, $12.35, $7.60; 2, Ferrash, $5.35, $4; 3, High Card, $7.55. Time, 1.33 2-5.

Armed Rum Chasing Fleet is Planned For Lake Superior

St. Paul, Minn., June 21.—The St. Paul Pioneer says:

"Minnesota is to have an armed rum-chasing fleet of three speedy coastguard boats on Lake Superior by August 1, according to unofficial word from Washington.

"The plan to place rum chasers on Lake Superior follows adoption of new liquor laws in Ontario, and arrangements have been made with the Canadian Government to permit boats to operate as far as three miles north of Isle Royal."

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 22, 1927

Kindly stars dominate to-day, according to astrology, which finds the planetary government mainly favorable.

Early in the morning the rule favors banks and banking. There is to be much of special interest to financiers in world developments at this time, the seers declare.

The sway is suspicious to all who are enterprising and who push projects that require courage as well as capital.

Because of pre-occupation in big affairs employers may not be approachable while this configuration prevails and it is well not to seek promotion or any favor.

It is rather a forbidding direction of the stars for all who seek positions, but there is to be much work as the Summer advances.

Merchants and manufacturers are to profit from some change in fashions in the Autumn.

Housekeepers will face increase in the cost of living, it is prophesied, and hotel proprietors will benefit as thousands forsake home maintenance.

This should be a favorable day for farmers who certainly are to have a profitable season, despite vagaries in weather.

Astrologers prognosticated at the beginning of the year great loss of life through unusual storms and they warn that tempests are to rage at intervals in many places all through the Summer.

Nervous disorders may be exceedingly prevalent and the mind unusually sensitive to impressions while this direction of the stars continues.

Wheat may be the subject of unusual interest to-day and speculation may be far-reaching.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of great adventures that bring much success.

Children born on this day probably will aspire to public careers. Many born under this sign reach fame.

New Westminster, June 21.—T. Yoshica, a Japanese, who was struck on the head by a piece of timber in an accident at the camp of the Commercial Lumber Company at Port Hammond about a week ago, died in a hospital here early yesterday. He had been living at Webster's Corners and was brought to the hospital last Tuesday.

THE TINYMITES

BY HAL COCHRAN

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

When Scouty saw the Tinymites, it was the finest of all sights that he had seen for quite a time. It thrilled him through and through. "Hello, there, bunch," he shouted loud. "I'll soon be back there in your crowd. I have a lot of thrilling tales I'm going to tell to you."

Then Clowny shouted from the shore, "We're glad to see you back once more. It surely has seemed lonesome, and we've missed you quite a lot. But, say, before you come to land, let's see you do some antics grand. It ought to be real easy on that dandy seal you've got."

"All right," yelled Scouty. "I will try. Just watch me as I'm passing by." And then he whispered to the seal, "Come on, let's do some tricks." Away they went across the stream, which made the band of Tinies scream. At first they thought that Scouty and the seal were in a fix.

But, as they watched, the fear died out, for Mister Seal swam all about, and Scouty stayed upon his back. He'd learned to ride by now. "Oh, gee," cried Carpy, "that's real fun, to glide around beneath the sun. I'd like to take a ride myself, if Scouty'd show me how."

But, at this moment, in the sky, the Tinies saw some birds sail by. They circled 'round the island 'bout a dozen times or more. Said Clowny, "Why, they're coming down. Their wings are white, their bills are brown. If they are really friendly birds, I hope they land on shore."

But soon they swooped right out of sight, except just one that turned his flight right out to where wee Scouty was, a seal-back riding still. This monstrous bird made one quick dive, and Coppy shouted, "Sakes alive!" It started him to see the bird grab Scouty in its bill.

LIQUOR ARRESTS IN LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, June 21—Frank Cornero, classed by officials as a notorious rum runner, who was indicted a week ago following investigation of an alleged liquor ring in Orange County involving county officials, surrendered to the United States district attorney here yesterday.

Cornero is a brother of Tony Cornero, who also had figured in numerous investigations into illegal liquor traffic.

Five persons, including a deputy sheriff of Orange County and a former justice of the peace, have been arrested in connection with the ring's operations, said to have included a pay-off system to county officers.

FOR Acid Stomach
PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

BEAVER LAKE CAMP OPEN IN TWO WEEKS WITH NOVEL PLANS

Y.M.C.A. Will Spend Three Weeks in Camp at Beaver Lake: One at Mathieson

School closes Friday. Ask anybody his ideal of vacation and he will immediately answer camping. With studies put aside with a sigh—of relief—nearly every boy in Victoria is considering how he can realize the cherished ambition of a week under canvas. Again this Summer the Y.M.C.A. brings the pleasures of life in the great outdoors to scores of lads. Two camps will be conducted this year, one at Beaver Lake and one at Mathieson Lake.

BEAVER LAKE CAMP

The camp at Beaver Lake conducted by the local Y.M.C.A. opens on July 4. A large number of members have already been signed up and applications are being received daily. The boys this year are purchasing tickets which are good for one week, and used as are any club or membership tickets. Inroads have already been made upon them and only a limited number remain. A capacity attendance in each week this season is anticipated for a special programme has been devised for each week.

JUBILEE WEEK

The first week will be Jubilee Week, when each tent will be named after one of the provinces of the Dominion. During this week suitable competitions will be held to emphasize the value of Confederation to the Dominion.

The second week will be observation week, when a thorough study of nature and the flowers, birds, trees, insects and the soil, of the land surrounding the camp will be made. It is hoped that as a result of this a new interest in the natural beauty of the country will be awakened in the boys.

The third week will be devoted to a combined Tuxis, Trail Ranger and Y.M.C.A. programme. In this week a special programme director will be added to the staff to specialize in Trail Ranger work.

PIONEER PROGRAMME

The fourth week the camp will be held at Mathieson Lake for older and sturdier boys. This is a virgin location and will offer a splendid ground on which to promote the fine pioneer programme which has been arranged.

In all four weeks the committee plans to specialize in the instruction of swimming and life saving, first aid, woodcraft and fire prevention. Close supervision of all activities will insure safety and a first aid expert will take care of such slight accidents as may occur. As usual food will be prepared by an expert cook, and will be served with regard to both quantity and quality.

An attractive information sheet has been prepared by the Y.M.C.A. covering essential details regarding both camps. The folder which reads as follows may be obtained at the Y.M.C.A. office.

WHO MAY GO?

Any boy of good character, ten to seventeen years of age, inclusive.

Dates:

There will be four weeks of camp. The first week, July 4 to 11, will be especially for boys ten, eleven and twelve. The second and third weeks will be for boys twelve to fourteen years inclusive. Boys who cannot attend during their age period or who wish to remain longer, or who desire other arrangements than those given, should see the camp director.

The fourth week, July 27 to August 3, is designed for older boys and will consist of a trip in to Mathieson Lake and of a pioneer programme there.

Accommodation for each week is limited to sixty boys.

COST?

The cost is seven dollars per week. Non-members of the Y.M.C.A. are charged an extra dollar per week, which may be applied on membership if desired.

HOW TO GET TO CAMP?

Cars leave the Y.M.C.A. every Monday morning at 9.30 o'clock, taking boys and their sacks to camp. The return fare is forty cents. Pack all luggage in a kit or suitcase. There is no room for trunks.

VISITORS?

Visitors to Beaver Lake are taken out on Saturday afternoons, fifty cents return fare. Arrangements for transportation should be made at the Y.M.C.A. general office on Fridays.

WHAT TO BRING?

Good clothes are not the fashion at Beaver Lake camp. The usual costume consists of sleeveless jerseys, khaki trousers, socks and running shoes. Bring along gym suit, running shoes, bathing suit, khaki shirt, trousers, sweater, boots and socks for hiking, handkerchiefs, pyjamas, soap, towel, toothbrush, comb, dark blankets, pillow, bed tick (3 ft. x 6 ft.), to be filled with straw at camp. Sport equipment, musical instruments or cameras are welcome.

TO BOYS:

Beaver Lake camp offers you a splendid outing amid beautiful surroundings. Swimming, hiking, games of all kinds, camp fire and woodcraft make up just a grand old Summer's fun, really worth while.

Mathieson Lake camp will give you a week of real pioneer camping experience, in a rough but wonderful country, under careful supervision.

TO PARENTS:

Camping is the most worth-while of all activities into which boys enter. Beaver Lake camp has been noted for its splendid programme, careful supervision and good food, at a cost far below that of similarly equipped camps. This year's outing will be bigger and better than ever.

Mathieson Lake camp is the playground for the more rugged and older boy. It is just a wonderful place and boys will have opportunity to live the life of the pioneer under homelike care.

TICKETS:

Tickets entitling the purchaser to one week at camp may be purchased at the Y.M.C.A. or from W. T. Straith of the Boys' Work Board. All campers must have a ticket. Cheques should be made payable to the camp director.

DISCIPLINE:

A democratically organized camp council, to which authority all campers are subject, is responsible for the discipline and order of the camp.

SWIMMING:

Proper periods are set aside for all swimming, and careful supervision is arranged. Lessons will be gladly given beginners.

BOATING:

No boy will be allowed to enter boats unless having passed the test assigned. Boats will only be used under adult supervision.

PROGRAMME:

A programme chock-full of things boys love to do will radiate joy round this season's camp. It will afford opportunity for fourfold development, with ample time for fun and recreation.

TUXIS AND TRAIL RANGERS:

Through an arrangement with the Boys' Work Board, accommodation will be reserved for Tuxis and Trail Rangers. Tickets should be secured from W. T. Straith at once.

CAMP LEADERS:

Capable, experienced camp leaders have been secured. These are men who have outstanding ability and who understand boys. The camp will be under the direction of C. F. Hine, Boys' Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., who will be the camp chief.

The supervisory committee of the camp consists of Ira Dilworth, M.A., Dr. J. C. Foote, W. S. Maguire, Jack Shadbolt and Henry Estlin.

Further information will be gladly given at the Y.M.C.A., Blanshard and View Streets, where tickets are on sale. Phon 2980 and make reservation.

ESQUIMALT'S FLOAT WILL SWELL PARADE

Municipality Plans Opening of Memorial Park For July 1 as Well

Esquimalt will join hands with the other municipalities of the greater Victoria district in patriotic fashion in order to assure the success of the July 1 celebrations, according to a decision reached by the council at its meeting last night. The fact that the municipality will have at least one colorful float in the great parade planned for the anniversary of Canada's birthday created this understanding. Esquimalt will do its share, towards adding to the procession's attraction in this way. Its float, tentatively, will have a patriotic "motif," probably emblematic of the municipality as a military district and naval bases of past and present. The float should be striking. Its actual constructional details will be left in competent hands and the plans for these will be made in the near future.

In addition to the interest the municipality is showing in the Victoria parade, which will embrace surrounding districts in its make-up, the council is planning the formal opening of the Esquimalt Memorial Park, where a maple tree will be planted and where school children will be a feature of the proceedings. The event will be planned along fitting lines and will add to the spirit of the holiday.

NAME SATISFIES

Reeve James Elrick expressed himself as satisfied with the change of name of the new drydock at Skinner's Cove recently authorized and passed by Ottawa. Originally it was to be known as the "Songhees Drydock," but through the combined efforts of the Esquimalt Board of Trade and Council and the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, which bodies considered the name anything but suited to the structure, the giant ships' hospital will be known to the world as "Esquimalt Drydock." Other members of the council agreed with the Reeve. The new name was the only proper one, it was admitted. The christening of the drydock is set for July 2, at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The Esquimalt Board of Trade communicated with the council asking that some measure be taken to make better access to the beach at the foot of Admiral's Road, so long popular with the people of the municipality and elsewhere, where the water stretches away to the Straits of Juan de Fuca and the view is one of the most beautiful in the district. The surroundings are well suited to picnic parties and the bathing facilities are good. The place could be made even more attractive should a pathway be made to reach it. At present the one approach is through Hudson's Bay Company land. The council will consider this matter in the future.

A meeting of the council was called last night for Monday next when particular business will be discussed.

Victoria Lettuce Makes Hit With Prairie Market

By J. A. GRANT
(B.C. Markets Commissioner)

Calgary, June 21—Weather was mild and fair with occasional showers during last week.

Business is only fair. The market is well supplied in all seasonable produce. The retail trade have been buying Hood River berries at high prices and are taking considerable loss on them due to heavy shipments of B.C. berries arriving L.C.L. This market is today in good shape for B.C. berries.

Most of the vegetables consumed at present on the prairies are produced in Mississippi, California and Washington. Victoria, B.C., sent a car of vegetables, including cabbage and head lettuce. The cabbage had far too many heavy outside leaves around the heads, causing the heads to heat and rot. The head lettuce was excellent. The jobber receiving them remarked that if B.C. would produce head lettuce of this quality he was all through with imported stuff.

Hothouse tomatoes are selling at present at $6 per crate, but a price around $4.75 to $5 is expected Monday. Mississippi four-basket crate and California lugs are being sold at $2.40 and $2.50 and are cutting down the consumption of hothouse tomatoes.

CANADIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS CREST COMPETITION

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce, which within the past year or two has been organized throughout the Dominion, is offering a prize of $100 for a design for a suitable crest to be used by the organization. The competition is open to all, and should set forth the objects of the Canadian-wide body.

As an assistance to competitors the object of the body, as set out in the constitution of the chamber, is called to attention: This is as follows:

"The object shall be to stimulate and maintain a vigorous Canadian national sentiment and to co-operate in promoting the efficiency and in extending the usefulness of the various Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce throughout the Dominion, and to secure unity and harmony of action in reference to commercial usages, customs and laws, and especially that a united opinion should be obtained so as to secure a proper and careful consideration by legislative bodies of questions pertaining to the financial, economical, commercial, interests of the country at large."

Any further particulars with respect to the contest may be obtained at the office of the Chamber of Commerce in this city.

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce will meet in convention in Vancouver this Fall. The gathering will open September 12, and ends two days later, thus working in well with the great gathering of the Pacific Foreign Trade Congress, which is to meet in this city.
